Black Panthers Slate Convention In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Black Panthers say they will hold a national convention in Philadelphia this weekend whether the police like it or not — in the streets if necessary.

Police Commissioner Frank L. Rizzo, who canceled all leaves for his 7,000 men and put them on 12-hour shifts, said his department was "loaded for bear." His action followed dawn raids Monday on three Panther centers where police said guns and ammunition were found. Three police raiders were slightly wounded by shotgun fire.

A Panther spokesman said the raids were an attempt by Rizzo "to squash our convention, but it won't work."

Zayd Shakur, who identified himself as Panther information minister for New York State, told a sidewalk news conference in front of one of the raided centers Tuesday:

"We will meet here Saturday and Sunday and Monday as scheduled and no one will stop us."

"If it is necessary to hold it in the streets, we will hold it there. Bet on it, baby."

"I think we will have trouble from the police but so what?" Shakur added.

Fourteen persons found in the Panther centers were being held in $100,000 bail each on charges of conspiracy.

Rizzo said he had no power to prevent the convention. He said this was up to the mayor, governor or the courts.

The gathering, which the Panthers call their "Revolutionary People's Constitutional Convention," is scheduled to open Saturday night in the 4,500-seat gymnasium of Temple University's new sports complex in the heart of the North Philadelphia black ghetto.

Participating will be the militant and radical leaders, both black and white, of the so-called (Continued on Page 2)

LE Levy Rejected By Voters

Less than one third of the 1,944 persons eligible to vote in the Logan Elm School District went to the polls Tuesday for the special election of the district.

A proposed additional tax levy of two mills was defeated by the 582 registered voters who cast ballots in the districts eight precincts.

Revenue of the proposed levy was for the purpose of supporting an increase of salary for teachers and other employees of the district.

The official count was 243 for 339 against. It was supported affirmatively in three of the precincts.

The vote as tabulated by precincts is as follows: Circleville Twp., South — 14 for, 1 against; Pickaway Twp., East — 32 for, 87 against; Pickaway Twp. West — 32 for, 44 against; Tilton Village — 16 for, 29 against; Saltcreek Twp. North — 45 for, 53 against; Saltcreek Twp. South — 25 for, 53 against; Washington Twp. Press Manhunt For Alleged Sheriff Slayer

Vinton-Hocking County Border Being Swept

McARTHUR, Ohio (AP) — A mass sweep of the Vinton-Hocking County border by some 250 law enforcement officers got underway early today in an attempt to flush out the man wanted in the slaying of Vinton County Sheriff Harold Steele.

A sheriff's deputy in Vinton County said officials hoped to complete the sweep of the caves and dense undergrowth in the area by noon.

Law enforcement officials and volunteers kept up an all-night search for the suspect in shifts of 75-100 at a time.

The manhunt has not stopped since it was organized Monday afternoon shortly after Steele was killed by at least two blasts from a shotgun and a deputy was wounded.

Steele was killed when he went to serve a legal paper on Oliver Mills, 59, at Mills' farmhouse in a remote area seven miles from McArthur, the county seat.

Mills is described as an expert woodsman "who really knows the area."

A sheriff's office spokesman said it is believed Mills is somewhere in the area around Ash Cave, either in southern Hocking County or northern Vinton County.

Dog teams, airplanes and a state patrol helicopter have been aiding in the search. Cuyahoga County Sheriff Ralph Kreiger flew to McArthur late Tuesday with two German Shepherds specially trained in Germany to track the suspect.

Vinton County Commissioners and the Buckeye State Sheriff's Association have offered a $1,000 reward for the arrest of Oliver Mills, alleged slayer of Vinton County Sheriff Harold Steele.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary George Romney of the Department of Housing and Urban Development says it would be a mistake to attempt to force integration on the nation's suburbs.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The just-completed census sketch of America has a familiar look. It depicts a nation of 200-plus million persons in search of warm weather or suburbia.

Circleville Council Increases Parking Meter Fines To 50 Cents, One Dollar

The fine for overtime parking at meters in Circleville was increased by City Council Tuesday during its regular meeting.

The increase in the fine is effective immediately. For the first offense, the fine is increased from 25 cents to 50 cents, providing the fine is paid within 24 hours.

For the second offense within the same 24-hour period the fine is one dollar, again providing it is paid within 24 hours from the time it was issued.

All fines not paid within 24 hours are two dollars. Frank Barnhill, chairman of the city's finance committee, said the increase was proposed as a measure to control the flow of traffic at the parking meters.

THE ordinance was passed in the nick of time according to Safety Director Robert Adkins. The police department had ordered new parking meter tickets anticipating the fine would be increased. The last of the old tickets were used Monday.

It was a busy legislative session for council. The parking meter fine ordinance was one of 11 passed by council.

An ordinance granting Multi Channel Cable Company a franchise for cable television in the city was approved. It was noted that the Federal Communications Commission had not yet granted permission for the company to operate in Circleville.

A resolution authorizing Service Director Atwood Jones to prepare plans for curbs and gutters on Half Ave. between Clinton St. and Renick Ave. was approved.

Property owners can install their own curbs and gutters according to city specifications after the plans have been completed, Jones said. If not installed within the time allotted, the city will install them and assess the property owners.

An ordinance allowing the use of the capital improvement fund for street lighting was approved. Finance Committee Chairman David Goldschmidt explained the ordinance, which amends the city's budget ordinance, would release more general funds money for other uses.

OTHER ordinances approved by council involved appropriation of funds. They were: Transfer of $300 from the general fund to the police department incidentals fund to pay outstanding bills; transfer of $1,000 from the capital improvement fund to the parking meter fund for the purchase of new parking meters; Transfer of $500 from the furniture and fixture account of the city income tax fund to the refund account so that a proper refund of an overpayment by (Continued on Page 2)

Cease-Fire Plan Is Pushed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fourteen senators, including some of President Nixon's staunchest backers, have urged the President to reactivate the stymied Paris peace talks by pressing for a Vietnam cease-fire.

The senators suggested in a letter Tuesday the United States should lay such a new initiative on the bargaining table. The cease-fire should be coupled with aid to North and South Vietnam and propose free elections in which the Viet Cong could participate, they said.

"We believe that there is much to gain by making this proposal the next order of business at the Paris talks, and we hope you will give it your most serious consideration," the senators wrote Nixon.

U.S. negotiators have made previous cease-fire offers which have drawn no positive response from North Vietnam and the Viet Cong.

The proposal suggested by the senators would have free elections in South Vietnam supervised by an international commission, call for freedom for war prisoners and provide economic reconstruction aid to North and South Vietnam.

The letter was made public shortly after the Senate, by a 55-39 vote, rejected a proposal requiring Nixon to withdraw all U.S. troops from Vietnam by the end of 1971.

Among the signers of the letter to Nixon were Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, who supported the "end-the-war amendment," and Republican Leader Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, R-Ariz., who opposed the amendment.

Scott and Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., a leader in organizing support for the letter, told a news conference they consider this "a good time to stir something up" at the peace talks.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vince Lombardi, 57-year-old Washington Redskins football coach, was reported near death today at Georgetown University Hospital.

No official statements have been made by the hospital or the Redskins' office since Lombardi underwent a second operation. But an individual close to the situation who declined to be identified confirmed that Lombardi was near death.

Lombardi underwent surgery June 27 for removal of a tumor and a two-foot section of his colon. He was released July 10 but returned for additional surgery July 27.

In an endeavor to reduce the number of accidents during the Labor Day holiday, Municipal Court Judge Sterling M. Lamb has increased the amounts for appearance bonds effective from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight Monday.

Any affidavit charging a speed of 20 miles per hour, or more over the legal prima facie speed limit, in the corporation and/or outside the corporation, the appearance bond shall be $150.

For a violation of assured clear distances, appearance bond will be $150.

For a charge of failing to stop at a stop sign, and/or red light, appearance bond will be $100 if an accident is involved. If no accident, bond will be $60.

For a charge of failing to yield the right of way, the appearance bond will be $100.

For a charge of reckless operation, appearance bond will be $150.

Driving under suspension of revocation of license, appearance bond will be $200.

Drag racing, appearance bond will be $500.

All appearance bonds not specifically listed will remain the same as they have been in the past.

Charge of driving under influence of alcohol, appearance bond will be $1,000.

Stokes Warns Of Revolution

WASHINGTON (AP) — Citing personal poverty as a youth, Cleveland Mayor Carl B. Stokes attacked federal military spending and warned there would be a revolution if the government continued to ignore the nation's poor.

Stokes replied that as mayor of Cleveland he had simple problems to deal with, "like people who can't eat today."

Iraqi Troops May Clash With Jordan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fighting between Iraqi and Jordanian troops threatened to break out today in the wake of another attempt to assassinate King Hussein. Baghdad Radio said Iraqi troops stationed in Jordan moved into position alongside Palestinian guerrilla forces "following the Jordanian shelling of Palestinian refugee camps and civilian quarters of the capital."

"This obliged the Jordanian army to withhold shooting at Fedayeen (guerrilla) camps and civilian quarters," the broadcast said. It added that Iraqi troops had been alerted "to face actions against Palestinian resistance."

The Iraqi government said Tuesday it had threatened to order its 12,000 troops in Jordan into action against Hussein's army unless Jordanian troops stopped firing on the Palestinians.

Fighting broke out again between Palestinian guerrillas and Jordanian forces in Amman Tuesday night after Amman Radio reported another attempt to assassinate the Jordanian king. The Al Fatah guerrilla organization said in Beirut that 10 persons were killed and 40 wounded during the night, and that sporadic shooting was still going on today.

Military sources in Beirut said that despite Baghdad's claims, the Iraqi troops in Jordan were neither much of a threat to the Jordanian army nor much potential help to the guerrillas. They said the Iraqis were mostly artillery and anti-aircraft units, not street fighters, and they added that the 55,000-man Jordanian army is the best in the Arab world and probably could contain the Iraqis.

Amman Radio denied that Jordanian troops had fired on refugee camps and said the government had the situation under control. A dispatch from Amman said the city appeared calm, but the streets were deserted, people were afraid to go out, shops were closed and there were no morning papers. (Continued on Page 2)

Sheriff Stops Load Of Dope

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Summit County Sheriff Robert Campbell and 14 of his deputies arrested four men on charges of possession of marijuana for sale and confiscated marijuana valued at $278,000 Tuesday night.

Campbell said $250,000 worth of marijuana was found in a truck which he and his deputies had kept under surveillance on a tip from police at Bonner Springs, Kan.

The sheriff said he had received word from the police in Kansas that a truck with a cargo of marijuana was headed for the Coventry Shopping Plaza in Summit County.

He said he and his deputies spotted the truck on Interstate 71 near Columbus and kept it under surveillance along I-71 and U.S. 224 to the shopping plaza, where the sheriff said he had been informed that someone was to meet the truck.

When no one showed up to meet the truck at the plaza, it left and was stopped by Campbell and his men at a road block about four blocks away, the sheriff said.

Romney Against Forced Integration Of Suburbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary George Romney of the Department of Housing and Urban Development says it would be a mistake to attempt to force integration on the nation's suburbs.

Besides, Romney said in an interview with The Associated Press, the Nixon administration's authority is limited in forcing changes in housing patterns.

Two governors told the convention's opening business session Tuesday to stay tuned to the country's youth but not to tolerate those who break the laws.

Gov. Tom McCall of Oregon said, "We must not lose the young people through insulting them with blanket and stereotyped judgments."

He said not to fear dissent or peaceful demonstrations, but "bombs, firebrands, rocks, bloodshed—that's another matter... They will not be tolerated in Oregon."

Kansas Gov. Robert Docking said, "It is time that we began listening to that large majority of youth who realize that this nation is a nation in which if you have a better way to do something, the people will accept it."

During a Tuesday evening parade by the People's Army Jamboree, a group opposed to U.S. policy in Southeast Asia, marchers taunted convention delegates and some tension developed.

Judge Lamb Ups Weekend Bond Costs

Fast Motorists And Drunk Drivers Hit Hardest In Hike

In an endeavor to reduce the number of accidents during the Labor Day holiday, Municipal Court Judge Sterling M. Lamb has increased the amounts for appearance bonds effective from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight Monday.

Any affidavit charging a speed of 20 miles per hour, or more over the legal prima facie speed limit, in the corporation and/or outside the corporation, the appearance bond shall be $150.

For a violation of assured clear distances, appearance bond will be $150.

For a charge of failing to stop at a stop sign, and/or red light, appearance bond will be $100 if an accident is involved. If no accident, bond will be $50.

For a charge of failing to yield the right of way, the appearance bond will be $100.

For a charge of reckless operation, appearance bond will be $150.

Driving under suspension of revocation of license, appearance bond will be $200.

Drag racing, appearance bond will be $500.

All appearance bonds not specifically listed will remain the same as they have been in the past.

Charge of driving under influence of alcohol, appearance bond will be $1,000.

Stokes Warns Of Revolution

WASHINGTON (AP) — Citing personal poverty as a youth, Cleveland Mayor Carl B. Stokes attacked federal military spending and warned there would be a revolution if the government continued to ignore the nation's poor.

U.S. Sen. Carl Curtis, R-Neb., accused Stokes during the Tuesday hearing of "oversimplifying" and "misleading millions of people."

Stokes replied that as mayor of Cleveland he had simple problems to deal with, "like people who can't eat today."

Census Shows Shift To Warm Weather Areas

By BROOKS JACKSON Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The just-completed census sketch of America has a familiar look. It depicts a nation of 200-plus million persons in search of warm weather or suburbia.

The population was put at 179,323,175 by the 1960 Census. The nation's full-scale portrait won't be unveiled until the final official tally is completed and sent to President Nixon by Dec. 1. But the preliminary figures announced Tuesday by Commerce Secretary Maurice H. Stans provides a good preview.

It is surprisingly unsurprising, backing up what the Census Bureau had projected all along on the basis of the old 1960 figures and subsequent spot samplings.

It shows: —A nationwide total of 200,263,721 persons counted so far, and likely to go to between 204 and 205 million by the time such still-uncounted categories as overseas servicemen are added. The bureau had projected 204.8 million for last April 1, the date the census was taken.

—California grew the most, by nearly 4 million to 19.7 million, to replace New York as the most populous state.

—Americans moved toward warm weather. Florida and Texas joined California as states with more than a million population growth, along with the colder but already teeming states of New York and New Jersey. The largest percentage increases were scored by Nevada, with 68.9 per cent, Florida with 34.7 and Arizona with 34.6.

—Suburbanites outnumber residents of inner cities for the first time. Thirteen of the 25 largest cities in the '70 tally had lost population, including Chicago, Detroit and Baltimore. New York held about even. Big gainers were the warm-weather cities of Los Angeles, Houston, Dallas, San Diego, San Antonio and Phoenix.

—Farm population declined from 15 million to 10 million. Old migration patterns continued, from the center of the nation to the coasts and from South to North.

Stans said despite howls from localities that felt slighted in previously released preliminary counts, he thinks the 1970 census will prove to be the most accurate ever.

He said the bureau has completed rechecks involving 6 1/2 (Continued on Page 2)

U.S. Moves To New Viet Pullouts

SAIGON (AP) — The United States pushed ahead today with two new moves to disengage American forces from Vietnam, and the U.S. commander, Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, said the ability of the South Vietnamese to defend themselves "has been greatly enhanced."

On the battlefields, U.S. and South Vietnamese forces remained on the alert for attacks to mark North Vietnam's National Day today and the first anniversary Thursday of the death of President Ho Chi Minh. But so far the anticipated upsurge had not occurred. Government forces claimed 51 enemy killed in two clashes in the Mekong Delta 45 and 130 miles southwest of Saigon and said their own casualties were light.

In the latest step in the Vietnamization program, the U.S. Army transferred for the first time a complete helicopter company of 31 UH1 Huey helicopters worth nearly $8 million to the South Vietnamese air force. American officers said it was the beginning of a program of transfers of entire helicopter companies.

The transfer ceremony at Bien Hoa Air Base 15 miles northeast of Saigon was held a few hours after an announcement from the U.S. Command confirming a report Tuesday that two American combat brigades totaling about 10,000 men are being disbanded. They are the 199th Light Infantry Brigade and the 3rd Brigade of the 9th Infantry Division.

The helicopter company that was turned over to the Vietnamese, the 260th Assault Helicopter Company, also is being disbanded.

With U.S. strength in Vietnam reported at 402,300 men as of last Thursday, deactivation of the two brigades and the helicopter company will leave only about 8,000 more men to be removed from the American force to reach the authorized strength of 384,000 men by Oct. 15 which President Nixon set as the goal of the fourth phase of his withdrawal program.

This total is to be cut another 100,000 by next April.

Abrams said in an address at the helicopter transfer ceremony, "The work to make this day possible began many, many months ago with the training of pilots, the training of technicians and the training of ground crews. It's taken a lot of hard work and determination so that this day could happen."

The U.S. Command said there were 25 enemy rocket and mortar attacks from 8 a.m. Tuesday to 8 a.m. today, and that an American A4 Skyhawk fighter-bomber and a helicopter were lost Tuesday. The command said one American was killed and two were wounded in the shelling, the Skyhawk pilot was missing, and two Americans aboard the helicopter were wounded.

In Cambodia, a government spokesman said North Vietnamese and Viet Cong reinforcements were pouring into the Srang area but Cambodian troops were launching fresh assaults to recapture the village 30 miles southwest of Phnom Penh. About 25 Cambodians were reported killed and 50 or more seriously wounded in the past four days of fighting for Srang.

David Crawford, chairman of the service committee, presented a resolution approving a map of the Earnhart Hill Water District. Council earlier this summer passed a resolution opposing the district because members felt it was infringing on areas better served by the city water department. Council members felt the district would be detrimental to future annexation.

THE Department of Public Utilities had viewed the map and sent a letter to council saying that it would be many years before the city could provide water to the area of the Earnhart Hill Water District nearest the city.

Crawford withdrew his resolution when Mayor Richard Gerhardt voiced the opinion the map should first be studied by Circleville's Planning and Zoning Commission. Councilman Harold Clifton agreed with the mayor the map should be first approved by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Mayor Gerhardt said he was not opposed to the district but still felt it should be studied by the commission.

A petition was presented by Hazel Yeatts, 507 N. Pickaway St., objecting to Barthelmas Sheet Metal and Plumbing using a building in a residential area as a shop.

The petition signed by several residents of the N. Pickaway St. and Pleasant St. area, was referred to the city police department and to Planning and Zoning Commission for action.

A communication on the operation of the water plant from the Ohio Department of Health to Charles Taylor, public utilities manager, was read.

THE letter said the plant operation and maintenance was good but recommended another type of self contained breathing apparatus (gas mask) to be used at the plant because of the presence of chlorine gas canisters.

Mayor Gerhardt informed council a proposed budget for operation of the city in 1971 would be presented to them by November 3.

In a memorandum to members of council, the mayor listed 24 ordinances pending or which are needed to be approved. Ten of the legislative measures on the list were passed by Council last night.

ORDINANCES proposed which still need action are:

Ordinance ordering the city solicitor to file suit against Barthelmas for damage to the service department truck; ordinance to provide employee health insurance; ordinance to condemn the necessary easements for the Atwater-Morris Road widening project;

Ordinance approving subdivision regulations; codification ordinance; necessary legislation to pay for typing services for the Planning and Zoning Commission; necessary legislation to bond the assessments that have been certified to the county auditor so the city can get the money back now and not over a five to 10 year period;

Amendments to the truck parking ordinance so the Bloodmobile truck and Santa House can be legally parked on the streets; ordinance and appropriation to permit plans for water softening; ordinance permitting application for federal funds for extension of sanitary sewer to those areas in the south end which do not have sanitary sewer available; appropriation of $3,600 for part time laborers to help with leaf collection detail and to repair streets and alleys before winter;

Appropriation of $500 for furniture and fixtures for service department for purchase of a used dictating machine; ordinance to advertise for bids and enter into a contract for the purchase of a roller and dump truck; ordinance to prepare plans for curbs and gutters for a section of Watt St.

Councilmen present at the meeting were Crawford, Barnhill, Clifton, David Goldschmidt, Keith Wagner and Samuel (Pete) Cook.

Temple has been under fire by several state legislators for permitting use of its state-owned facilities by the Panthers.

The university has given permission for use of the gymnasium for only the opening session, but organizers asked Tuesday for use of the arena Sunday. University officials said this was being considered.

Gov. Raymond P. Shafer expressed his personal opposition to Panther aims and violent rhetoric but refused to cancel the conference at Temple.

"I will not allow the powerful processes of state government to be used as an instrument of repression, to stifle dissent, to abridge freedom of expression," he said recently.

But after a series of weekend shootings in which one Philadelphia policeman was killed and six others wounded, the governor said he might reconsider his decision "if this conference is going to lead to mob action or rioting or destruction."

Fundamentals Of Music Classes Are Scheduled

Music Readiness, something new to the Circleville Area, will be taught by Mrs. Gary Dean of 1003 Lynwood Ave. Mrs. Dean will have groups of five or six children in each class where they will learn the fundamentals of music beginning with rhythm.

Students will include those in kindergarten through the third grade.

The classes, to begin in about two weeks will provide the children with a greater insight as to which musical instrument to select to play. They will be visited by older students demonstrating many different instruments.

Mrs. Dean is a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music where she majored in piano and teaching techniques. She has a few openings left for private piano lessons for older students and may be called for information regarding the readiness classes or lessons at 474-1168.

Workers Win

Fight In Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The approximately three million federal and District of Columbia workers to swear they won't membership in organizations which assert the right to strike.

The development came Tuesday in the Supreme Court when the government gave up its defense of a law that requires workers to swear they won't strike.

A three-judge federal court had ruled the provision invalid.

The legal action does not mean federal workers now are free to strike. It merely allows them to assert their right to do so and to belong to organizations making that assertion.

Urge Race Percentage In Suburbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — A member of the presidential task force for urban problems says poor or black families should be permitted to live in white suburbs, but their numbers should be limited to avoid threatening middle class domination.

Dr. Anthony Downs, a Chicago real estate analyst and member of the presidential task force for six years, compared his proposal to assignment of school pupils on a racial percentage basis.

Downs told the Senate Equal Educational Opportunity Committee Tuesday some suburbanite fears are legitimate. But he said the wealthy and middle classes should not be allowed total freedom in excluding those they consider undesirable.

He conceded his plan would deny equal treatment to some.

"For example, in order to insure that the middle-class residents of a neighborhood would dominate its life styles regarding certain traits, and yet also allow some low-income residents in the area, it would be necessary to place some upper limit on the number or proportion of low-income residents there," Downs said.

"Low-income households moving into the area before that limit was reached would be given access freely—in fact, encouraged to enter," he said.

"But those who attempted to enter the area after the desired proportion had been reached would be denied access, or strongly discouraged from entering," Downs said.

He said such discriminatory treatment—based upon recognition of the need to attain a certain social goal—may be unconstitutional. But he noted there had been the same question of constitutionality concerning racial assignment of pupils.

"Thus it is now possible and even mandatory for public school systems to take race into consideration when assigning pupils to various schools," he said.

Downs said simultaneous reforms must be made in school taxation, to quit penalizing communities which accept low-income residents and educate their children with no gain in tax revenue.

He said the federal government and realtors must share blame for the racial and economic separation between the poor in deteriorating cities and the more affluent in the suburbs.

But he said the myriad of rationalizations, some legitimate, with which the mostly white suburbanites defend their exclusionary actions must be credited with a goodly share of blame.

He cited middle-class demands for schools made up of children from similar backgrounds; holding down property taxes; keeping the crime rate low, and retaining property values.

Five Are Present At Hearing

Terry Wayne Grabans was granted leniency today on a charge of shooting and butchering a steer belonging to Roy Anderson and Robert Diltz and had his prison sentence terminated by Judge William Ammer.

Grabans was apprehended in February with his brother John at the Deer Creek Auto Parts yard on Route 23, butchering a Holstein steer they had stolen earlier.

Terry, 25, was sentenced to Mansfield Reformatory for 1-7 years in April because of a previous conviction on a bad check charge. John was released on probation. Both men were ordered to make payment to the owners for their loss.

In other cases appearing Wednesday morning, Walter Rayburn entered a guilty plea to taking indecent liberties with a 13-year-old girl.

Rayburn has been sent for observation at Lima and the Scioto Paint Valley Guidance Center in Chillicothe who both issued favorable reports following the study.

Rayburn told the court he separated from his wife and was now residing at Route 1, Williamsport. Prosecuting attorney Roy H. Huffer agreed to terms of probation for three years asked by Rayburn's attorney.

A man indicted by the Sept. 1968 grand jury was placed under $20,000 bond on a charge of larceny by trick.

Judge Ammer levied the high bond on Maynard Keaton Jr., who has been sought for over a year since he failed to appear at a hearing, forfeiting his bond. His case was continued until an attorney could be assigned by the court.

Thirty-two-year-old Gary Casperson was given three years probation on a charge of grand larceny in the theft of an outdoor grill. Casperson and his 42-year-old sister were charged with the theft of several items from the trailer court where they lived.

Casperson was released on probation to face charges of non-support of his family in Franklin County.

Schools and government offices also were closed.

None of the joint guerrilla army patrols set up last week to try to stop the fighting was seen in the streets. But guerrillas with bazookas were manning roadblocks and barricades in front of their headquarters and bases.

Radio Amman announced that the airport had reopened to regular traffic.

The Jordanian Cabinet was meeting in emergency session, and King Hussein was reported considering declaring martial law.

Radio Amman said Hussein's motorcade was fired on Tuesday as it approached a railway underpass but that the 34-year-old monarch was not hurt. He was on his way to the airport to meet his daughter, Princess Alia, whose flight was diverted to Beirut because of the attack.

It was the second assassination attempt against Hussein in three months. An attempt in June was followed by a week of fighting between Jordanian troops and guerrillas in which about 1,000 persons were killed or wounded.

Today was the fifth straight day of fighting between the army troops and the commandos. Clashes last weekend reportedly killed 12 persons and wounded 20.

Titles Report

A total of 1339 trucks and other vehicles were issued titles according to the August report by Sara M. Dresbach, clerk of courts, with 532 notations of liens and 445 cancellations.

A total of 25 titles were issued for boats and motors with a total of 53 inspection affidavits on foreign titles issued.

The court collected a total of $2,981.50 in title fees during the month of August. Dealers sales tax collected amounted to $43,627.29 and casual and use taxes amounted to $7,006.76.

Titles were issued to 27 trucks including 12 Fords, seven Chevrolets, four Internationals, two GMC trucks, one Fraehauf, and one Tractor Truck.

Mobile home titles amounted to 17 during August while 16 titles were issued to motorcycles, four to travel trailers, one jeep and four to boats.

Ford cars were issued 28 titles. Chevrolet had 23 issued while Plymouth received 13, Pontiac got 11, Buick nine, Volkswagen six, Mercury five, Hornet four, Dodge and Chrysler three each, Rebel, Oldsmobile, Opel, two each, and Rootes, Porche, Subaru, Fiat, Renault and Cadillac one each.

Commissioners Guests Of Chamber Board

Pickaway County Commissioners Dick Tootle, Wayne Hines and Charles Morris Jr. were guests at the monthly meeting Tuesday of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Ward Skinner, chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee, reported on the upcoming Farmers Market in conjunction with a promotion of downtown merchants. Skinner noted that response from the farming community had not been good due to the dry weather and other crop problems in the area.

Skinner also noted there was much enthusiasm over the auction scheduled September 19, at 2:30 p.m. Auction dollars will be given by participating merchants to customers during the period of Sept. 9-19 and the "dollars" will be used to bid on valuable merchandise on Sept. 19.

A report was given by Jack Mader from a committee appointed to review by-laws of the Chamber. Mader said several recommendations would be made, but any change would have to be made during a meeting of the general membership.

Howard Bobo, chamber president, appointed Kenneth Fosnaugh, Dr. William Myers and Doyle Spangler to a Budget Committee for 1971.

Whites Flee Classrooms In South

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Thousands of white school children across the South are fleeing public classrooms for private academies established to circumvent desegregation.

As school openings for the fall term continued on an orderly basis an AP survey of Southern school districts showed:

—Integration has had the most impact in rural areas.

—The dual school system is no longer effective in the South.

—More Negroes than ever before are going to school with whites.

It is also apparent that newly established private schools are siphoning off thousands of whites from the public school rolls.

"The escape academies are profiting off some of these parents," said an Atlanta education official who asked not to be identified.

"The children will all be back in public schools before Christmas, because in December taxes are due. You pay school taxes out of one pocket and private school tuition from the other and it doesn't take long to realize that you can't afford both. You have to pay taxes."

were 25 enemy rocket and mortar attacks from 8 a.m. Tuesday to 8 a.m. today, and that an American A4 Skyhawk fighter-bomber and a helicopter were lost Tuesday. The command said one American was killed and two were wounded in the shelling, the Skyhawk pilot was missing, and two Americans aboard the helicopter were wounded.

In Cambodia, a government spokesman said North Vietnamese and Viet Cong reinforcements were pouring into the Srang area but Cambodian troops were launching "fresh assaults to recapture the village 30 miles southwest of Phnom Penh. About 25 Cambodians were reported killed and 50 or more seriously wounded in the past four days of fighting for Srang."

Transfer of $9,100 from the income tax fund to account B within the fund to pay the salaries of clerks within the department; transfer of $675 from the fire equipment levy fund to equipment account A within the fund to purchase foam equipment so the department can adequately fight electrical and other fires;

Transfer of $1,100 from the state highway improvement fund to the traffic light fund for a new control system for the signals at Northridge Road, Atwater Ave. and Pickaway St.

David Crawford, chairman of the service committee, presented a resolution approving a map of the Earnhart Hill Water District, Council earlier this summer, passed a resolution opposing the district because members felt it was infringing on areas better served by the city water department. Council members felt the district would be detrimental to future annexation.

He cited middle-class demands for schools made up of children from similar backgrounds; holding down property taxes; keeping the crime rate low, and retaining property values.

THE Department of Public Utilities had viewed the map and sent a letter to council saying that it would be many years before the city could provide water to the area of the Earnhart Hill Water District nearest the city.

Crawford withdrew his resolution when Mayor Richard Gerhardt voiced the opinion the map should first be studied by Circleville's Planning and Zoning Commission. Councilman Harold Clifton agreed with the mayor the map should be first approved by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Mayor Gerhardt said he was not opposed to the district but still felt it should be studied by the commission.

A petition was presented by Hazel Yeatts, 507 N. Pickaway St., objecting to Barthelmas Sheet Metal and Plumbing using a building in a residential area as a shop.

The petition signed by several residents of the N. Pickaway St. and Pleasant St. area, was referred to the city police department and to Planning and Zoning Commission for action.

A communication on the operation of the water plant from the Ohio Department of Health to Charles Taylor, public utilities manager, was read.

THE letter said the plant operation and maintenance was good but recommended another type of self contained breathing apparatus (gas mask) to be used at the plant because of the presence of chlorine gas canisters.

Mayor Gerhardt informed council a proposed budget for operation of the city in 1971 would be presented to them by November 3.

In a memorandum to members of council, the mayor listed 24 ordinances pending or which are needed to be approved. Ten of the legislative measures on the list were passed by Council last night.

ORDINANCES proposed which still need action are: Ordinance ordering the city solicitor to file suit against Barthelmas for damage to the service department truck; ordinance to provide employee health insurance; ordinance to condemn the necessary easements for the Atwater-Morris Road widening project;

Ordinance approving subdivision regulations; codification ordinance; necessary legislation to pay for typing services for the Planning and Zoning Commission; necessary legislation to bond the assessments that have been certified to the county auditor so the city can get the money back now and not over a five to 10 year period;

Amendments to the truck parking ordinance so the Bloodmobile truck and Santa House can be legally parked on the streets; ordinance and appropriation to permit plans for water softening; ordinance permitting application for federal funds for extension of Sanitary sewer to those areas in the south end which do not have sanitary sewer available; appropriation of $3,600 for part time laborers to help with leaf collection detail and to repair streets and alleys before winter;

Appropriation of $500 for furniture and fixtures for service department for purchase of a used dictating machine; ordinance to advertise for bids and enter into a contract for the purchase of a roller and dump truck; ordinance to prepare plans for curbs and gutters for a section of Watt St.

Councilmen present at the meeting were Crawford, Barnhill, Clifton, David Goldschmidt, Keith Wagner and Samuel (Pete) Cook.

Temple has been under fire by several state legislators for permitting use of its state-owned facilities by the Panthers.

The university has given permission for use of the gymnasium for only the opening session, but organizers asked Tuesday for use of the arena Sunday. University officials said this was being considered.

Gov. Raymond P. Shafer expressed his personal opposition to Panther aims and violent rhetoric but refused to cancel the conference at Temple.

"I will not allow the powerful processes of state government to be used as an instrument of repression, to stifle dissent, to abridge freedom of expression," he said recently.

But after a series of weekend shootings in which one Philadelphia policeman was killed and six others wounded, the governor said he might reconsider his decision "if this conference is going to lead to mob action or rioting or destruction."

Fundamentals Of Music Classes Are Scheduled

Music Readiness, something new to the Circleville Area, will be taught by Mrs. Gary Dean of 1003 Lynwood Ave. Mrs. Dean will have groups of five or six children in each class where they will learn the fundamentals of music beginning with rhythm.

Students will include those in kindergarten through the third grade.

The classes, to begin in about two weeks will provide the children with a greater insight as to which musical instrument to select to play. They will be visited by older students demonstrating many different instruments.

Mrs. Dean is a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music where she majored in piano and teaching techniques. She has a few openings left for private piano lessons for older students and may be called for information regarding the readiness classes or lessons at 474-1168.

Fisherman Drowns On Canada Trip

RENFREW, Ont. (AP) — Roy Norris, 24, of Bedford, Ohio, drowned Monday when the boat from which he was fishing capsized in the Madawaska River near Mountain Chute Hydro Dam. Two men with him in the 14-foot boat escaped harm.

Judge Orders Prisoner's Release

Judge William Ammer signed an order today calling for the release of Roy Penwell from the London Correctional Institution to the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department. Penwell is scheduled to appear in the Common Pleas Court seeking shock probation on a charge of possession of burglary tools.

Federal, D.C. Workers Win Fight In Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The approximately three million federal and District of Columbia workers to swear they won't membership in organizations which assert the right to strike.

The development came Tuesday in the Supreme Court when the government gave up its defense of a law that requires workers to swear they won't strike.

A three-judge federal court had ruled the provision invalid. The legal action does not mean federal workers now are free to strike. It merely allows them to assert their right to do so and to belong to organizations making that assertion.

Urge Race Percentage In Suburbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — A member of the presidential task force for urban problems says poor or black families should be permitted to live in white suburbs, but their numbers should be limited to avoid threatening middle class domination.

Dr. Anthony Downs, a Chicago real estate analyst and member of the presidential task force for six years, compared his proposal to assignment of school pupils on a racial percentage basis.

Downs told the Senate Equal Educational Opportunity Committee Tuesday some suburbanite fears are legitimate. But he said the wealthy and middle classes should not be allowed total freedom in excluding those they consider undesirable.

He conceded his plan would deny equal treatment to some. "For example, in order to insure that the middle-class residents of a neighborhood would dominate its life styles regarding certain traits, and yet also allow some low-income residents in the area, it would be necessary to place some upper limit on the number or proportion of low-income residents there," Downs said.

"Low-income households moving into the area before that limit was reached would be given access freely—in fact, encouraged to enter," he said.

"But those who attempted to enter the area after the desired proportion had been reached would be denied access, or strongly discouraged from entering," Downs said.

He said such discriminatory treatment—based upon recognition of the need to attain a certain social goal—may be unconstitutional. But he noted there had been the same question of constitutional concern regarding racial assignment of pupils.

"Thus it is now possible and even mandatory for public school systems to take race into consideration when assigning pupils to various schools," he said.

Downs said simultaneous reforms must be made in school taxation, to quit penalizing communities which accept low-income residents and educate their children with no gain in tax revenue.

He said the federal government and realtors must share blame for the racial and economic separation between the poor in deteriorating cities and the more affluent in the suburbs.

But he said the myriad of rationalizations, some legitimate, with which the mostly white suburbanites defend their exclusionary actions must be credited with a goodly share of blame.

He cited middle-class demands for schools made up of children from similar backgrounds; holding down property taxes; keeping the crime rate low, and retaining property values.

Five Are Present At Hearing

Terry Wayne Grabans was granted leniency today on a charge of shooting and butchering a steer belonging to Roy Anderson and Robert Diltz and had his prison sentence terminated by Judge William Ammer.

Grabans was apprehended in February with his brother John at the Deer Creek Auto Parts yard on Route 23, butchering a Holstein steer they had stolen earlier.

Terry, 25, was sentenced to Mansfield Reformatory for 1-7 years in April because of a previous conviction on a bad check charge. John was released on probation. Both men were ordered to make payment to the owners for their loss.

In other cases appearing Wednesday morning, Walter Rayburn entered a guilty plea to taking indecent liberties with a 13-year-old girl.

Rayburn has been sent for observation at Lima and the Scioto Paint Valley Guidance Center in Chillicothe who both issued favorable reports following the study.

Rayburn told the court he separated from his wife and was now residing at Route 1, Williamsport. Prosecuting attorney Roy H. Huffer agreed to terms of probation for three years asked by Rayburn's attorney.

A man indicted by the Sept. 1968 grand jury was placed under $20,000 bond on a charge of larceny by trick.

Judge Ammer levied the high bond on Maynard Keaton Jr., who has been sought for over a year since he failed to appear at a hearing, forfeiting his bond. His case was continued until an attorney could be assigned by the court.

Thirty-two-year-old Gary Casperson was given three years probation on a charge of grand larceny in the theft of an outdoor grill. Casperson and his 42-year-old sister were charged with the theft of several items from the trailer court where they lived.

Casperson was released on probation to face charges of non-support of his family in Franklin County.

Non-Support Case Bound To Grand Jury

In Municipal Court action Wednesday morning, a Portsmouth man was bound over to the September session of the Pickaway County Grand Jury on $500 bond for non-support.

Galen Dwight Ratliff was named in a non-support suit filed by Joyce Ratliff, 435 S. Scioto St., charging that Ratliff had neglected the support of a minor daughter.

In other Municipal action, Judge Sterling M. Lamb found Robert E. Taylor, 930 S. Washington St., guilty of removing a truck and stealing $2 worth of gas from the Coca Cola Co., Scioto St.

Taylor was fined $50 plus costs on each count and sentenced to 60 days in the Pickaway County Jail on each charge with both sentences suspended. Taylor was also put on one year probation.

Commissioners Guests Of Chamber Board

Pickaway County Commissioners Dick Tootle, Wayne Hines and Charles Morris Jr. were guests at the monthly meeting Tuesday of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Ward Skinner, chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee, reported on the upcoming Farmers Market in conjunction with a promotion of downtown merchants. Skinner noted that response from the farming community had not been good due to the dry weather and other crop problems in the area.

Skinner also noted there was much enthusiasm over the auction scheduled September 19, at 2:30 p.m. Auction dollars will be given by participating merchants to customers during the period of Sept. 9-19 and the "dollars" will be used to bid on valuable merchandise on Sept. 19.

A report was given by Jack Mader from a committee appointed to review by-laws of the Chamber. Mader said several recommendations would be made, but any change would have to be made during a meeting of the general membership.

Howard Bobo, chamber president, appointed Kenneth Fossnaugh, Dr. William Myers and Doyle Spangler to a Budget Committee for 1971.

Whites Flee Classrooms In South

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Thousands of white school children across the South are fleeing public classrooms for private academies established to circumvent desegregation.

As school openings for the fall term continued on an orderly basis an AP survey of Southern school districts showed:

—Integration has had the most impact in rural areas.

—The dual school system is no longer effective in the South.

—More Negroes than ever before are going to school with whites.

It is also apparent that newly established private schools are siphoning off thousands of whites from the public school rolls.

"The escape academies are profiteering off some of these parents," said an Atlanta education official who asked not to be identified.

"The children will all be back in public schools before Christmas, because in December taxes are due. You pay school taxes out of one pocket and private school tuition from the other and it doesn't take long to realize that you can't afford both. You have to pay taxes."

Iraqi Troops

Schools and government offices also were closed.

None of the joint guerrilla army patrols set up last week to try to stop the fighting was seen in the streets. But guerrillas with bazookas were manning roadblocks and barricades in front of their headquarters and bases.

Radio Amman announced that the airport had reopened to regular traffic.

The Jordanian Cabinet was meeting in emergency session, and King Hussein was reported considering declaring martial law.

Radio Amman said Hussein's motorcade was fired on Tuesday as it approached a railway underpass but that the 34-year-old monarch was not hurt. He was on his way to the airport to meet his daughter, Princess Alia, whose flight was diverted to Beirut because of the attack.

It was the second assassination attempt against Hussein in three months. An attempt in June was followed by a week of fighting between Jordanian troops and guerrillas in which about 1,000 persons were killed or wounded.

Today was the fifth straight day of fighting between the army troops and the commandos. Clashes last weekend reportedly killed 12 persons and wounded 20.

Dresbach Issues New Vehicle Titles Report

A total of 1339 trucks and other vehicles were issued titles according to the August report by Sara M. Dresbach, clerk of courts, with 532 notations of liens and 445 cancellations.

A total of 25 titles were issued for boats and motors with a total of 53 inspection affidavits on foreign titles issued.

The court collected a total of $2,981.50 in title fees during the month of August. Dealers sales tax collected amounted to $43,627.29 and casual and use taxes amounted to $7,066.76.

Titles were issued to 27 trucks including 12 Fords, seven Chevrolets, four Internationals, two GMC trucks, one Fraehauf, and one Tractor Truck.

Mobile home titles amounted to 17 during August while 16 titles were issued to motorcycles, four to travel trailers, one jeep and four to boats.

Ford cars were issued 28 titles. Chevrolet had 23 issued while Plymouth received 13, Pontiac got 11, Buick nine, Volkswagen six, Mercury five, Hornet four, Dodge and Chrysler three each, Rebel, Oldsmobile, Opel, two each, and Rootes, Porche, Subaru, Fiat, Renault and Cadillac one each.

Later Than You Think

It was bound to happen, and it has. Several metropolitan stores have announced plans for earlier Christmas promotions, some starting in October.

The Christmas selling season, which in the dim past started in December and wound up in a store-denuding saturnalia of buying on Dec. 24, has been stretched over the years, and it is obvious 1970 will see a continuation of the trend.

But it always comes as a rude awakening to be reminded in this manner that it is later than you think.

The Business World

By DAVID BURKE (For John Cuniff)

NEW YORK (AP) — If this is supposed to be a period of economic slowdown, somebody forgot to tell the bankers running credit card programs.

The number of people owning bank credit cards has skyrocketed in the past year and a half, while the dollar amount purchased with these cards has nearly doubled.

During 1969, bank credit card purchases reached an estimated $3.8 billion, an 80 per cent increase over 1968, Federal Reserve Board member Andrew F. Brimmer told a congressional hearing recently. In the first quarter of 1970, bank card purchases jumped to approximately $1.1 billion, he said.

BankAmericard reported a nearly 100 per cent increase in cardholders for the 17 months ended May 31. During a similar period ended March 31, Master Charge saw its cardholders jump about 13-fold. The two cards, which account for most of the bank credit cards outstanding, each have about 32 million clients.

The two cards are relatively new and have just begun to tap the market, industry sources explained. BankAmericard dates to 1959, while Master Charge began in 1967.

Figures from BankAmericard and Interbank, a group of banks which include all Master Charge card-issuing banks, show that about half the approximately 8,000 banks offering one of these two cards began doing so within the last year and a half.

Many of the banks offering charge cards are still operating in the red, industry sources said. It usually takes from three to five years before a plan becomes profitable because of high startup costs. The individual banks belonging to Interbank or BankAmericard run their own operations separately.

Use of bank credit cards has apparently not been adversely affected by current economic conditions. For one thing, the cards offer a customer a 25-day interest free "breather" before he has to pay off his bills, a spokesman for Interbank explained.

"With a bank credit card, a person can borrow what he needs and then get out in a few days if that check from Aunt Martha comes in," he continued. The interest charge on sums not paid within 25 days of billing is generally 1 1/2 per cent a month.

As the bank credit card industry grows, it may start moving into the domain of the more specialized travel and entertainment cards, like American Express. And then there might be a clash of giants.

Chase Manhattan's Unicard, for example, has tripled the number of restaurants accepting its card in the past 18 months, a spokesman said.

"We're really going after the travel and entertainment business," he explained. "Bank credit cards will one day take over most of the business now occupied by the T&E cards."

H. Allen Smith recalls a time when Walter Davenport, destined to become a big wheel in the magazine world, not to mention advisor to Adlai Stevenson, was toiling as a lowly reporter under the watchful eye of Gene Fowler. Dispatched to cover a suffragette parade, he described the grand marshal as riding a "dapple-grey" horse. Fowler happened to know that the horse was white, so he branded Davenport a faker and fired him.

Davenport was reinstated, however, when he persuaded Fowler to accompany him to a saloon along the line of the parade, and explained that he had covered the event by peering through the dirty saloon window which was covered with fly specks. "I might have made the same mistake," conceded Fowler, then added, "and probably did."

A valiant defender of women's right accused a visiting lecturer from the Brown University History Department: "You've gone on at great lengths about the Pilgrim Fathers. How about the Pilgrim Mothers? Didn't they do their full share, too?" "More than their full share, Madam," consoled the diplomatic lecturer. "Let us never forget that they had to not only endure all the Pilgrim Fathers did—but the Pilgrim Mothers besides!"

Speaking Of Your Health

By Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

With so many young people smoking "pot" what effect will it have on the unborn child if "pot" is smoked during pregnancy? Will it affect the child if it is breast-fed?

Mrs. T.O.F., Calif. Dear Mrs. F.: The generally accepted rule of safety is to use as few drugs as possible during pregnancy.

Obstetricians and family doctors try to avoid all but the most essential drugs during this period.

Marijuana contains toxic elements which must be considered a potential hazard for the unborn child. Certainly, some of the active ingredients in marijuana must contaminate the milk and adversely affect the nursing child.

I am certain that many of the young marijuana enthusiasts can give all the "scientific" reasons why it is not dangerous under any circumstances. Then they will go on to the standard argument: "If alcohol is all right, why not pot?"

This is a type of false reasoning that serves a purpose for "pot" smokers, but has no validity. The next generation might well say: "If pot is all right, why not LSD and mescaline?"

A reverse positive approach would be elimination of the first hazard rather than compound the risk to health.

Let me reiterate that all pregnant women must avoid all drugs unless prescribed by their physicians. They owe this protection to themselves and to the unborn child.

What is the cause of a deviated septum of the nose? When should it be straightened?

Mr. H.J., Arizona Dear Mr. H. J.: The nasal septum is a partition composed of bone and cartilage. It divides one side of the nose from the other.

It is very rare to find a septum that is completely straight. Venturing a guess, I would say that not more than five out of a hundred people would have a perfectly straight septum.

The septum can be deviated, or deflected, during normal growth as the palate of the mouth grows and becomes arched. Injuries to the nose, fractures of the nasal bones, can displace the septum and cause it to be curved.

Infections of the sinuses do not alter the shape of the septum.

The nasal septum should be straightened when the curvature interferes with normal breathing or when it interferes with proper drainage from the sinuses.

When this operation is carefully chosen, the results are beneficial and offer better breathing space to the obstructed nose.

An extra day of rest is advisable after an acute infection.

Beware Of Proxmire

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN
ROME — American technological superiority is still enormously respected in Europe. It even gets its due in the naughty postcards ("the woman of 40 is like America, technically perfect; the woman of 60 is like Siberia, well spoken of but neglected.") The vice chairman of Olivetti, Auerlio Pececi, has written a book about the transatlantic technological cleavage, some of which has been running in "Freedom and Union," as supporting evidence for Mr. Streit's idea that there must be a union of the Western democracies.

Signor Pececi offers some fearsome figures: the U.S. has 40,000 computers in operation as compared to 10,000 for the whole of Western Europe; the sums deployed annually by the U.S. on research and development are ten times those of Britain, fifteen times those of Germany and France; the industrial spinoffs of the American space program are as infinity when compared with Europe's virtually non-existent space research; our Boeing 747s and Lockheed L1011s will revolutionize the air traffic of the Seventies with only a minor assist from the Rolls-Royce engine; etcetera, etcetera.

Signor Pececi's knowledge in his field is, practically inexhaustible, but to one who comes fresh from the Washington scene in America it must seem that the Olivetti vice chairman is writing on sand. The Roman press knows about Senator Fulbright, but it is little aware of Senator Proxmire and his anti-technological crusade. If Proxmire has his way, the technological distance between Western Europe and America is destined to be whittled down by American defaults on "R. and D." The edge of American air development will be blunted by slowdowns or cancellations of supersonic experimentation; the space program will have fewer spinoffs; the building of huge cargo planes will proceed at a slower pace; the Pentagon will be starved, with repercussions in the electronics market, and so on and on and on as sums are wasted in constructing more and more of that ugly cement-block housing that is destined to be the slums of tomorrow.

The present technological gap between America and Western Europe may not constitute a desirable state of affairs, but there should be better ways of closing it than any Senator Proxmire has yet devised. The predictions are that much of the 1970 diplomatic maneuvering in Western embassies will center on cutting the costs of maintaining the "America presence" in Europe that still gives NATO its potential punch. Senator Mansfield wants to have 300,000 American soldiers back on their home soil as soon as possible. The Mansfield threat will probably result in a compromise, with some pullback of military personnel and with the West Germans and other NATO partners assuming part of the cost of maintaining the rest.

A diminution of the "American presence" would be quite supportable if the U.S. edge in swift air transport technology is not lost. The trouble with Mansfield, however, is that he is flanked in the Senate by Proxmire, the terrifyingly vocal enemy of the Lockheed C-5A Galaxy flying freighter, which has encountered "cost overrun" troubles and has so become the butt of those who prate about the "Waste of money" on the "Military-industrial complex."

One may think that Senator Fulbright is slightly off his rocker when he attacks the Nixon foreign policies, but it is nonetheless reassuring to consider that the originator of the Fulbright exchange scholarships (himself a Rhodes scholar) would not let Western Europe go down the drain. When it comes to Proxmire one cannot summon up such charitable thoughts. Combined with creeping Mansfieldism, the galloping Proxmire would complete the American desertion of Europe. Mansfield would take the "American presence" out; Proxmire, by killing our jumbo transport development program, would destroy all credibility in the "remote presence" that could be embodied in air freighters, capable of dropping U.S. divisions on foreign soil at twenty-four hours notice.

There will also be a prominent sign to remind me, "Smile, you're on camera." But this admonition will be difficult to adhere to if the caller has aroused me from slumber.

While it will be pleasant to view my conversational partner, the problem will be to make sure he will find it pleasant to view me. So before I get in touch with the telephone operator I'll have to get in touch with the beauty operator.

Fortunately, I've still got time to assemble a suitably photogenic wardrobe, since the service won't be started in New York just yet. Another plus in my favor is the fact that the images are still being transmitted in black and white. So I don't have to make sure that the shade of my robe when I dash out of the tub to answer the phone matches the shade of my hair curlers.

But they're experimenting with color, as well as three-dimensional pictures, and then I'll have to be as concerned with my skin tone as I am with my dial tone.

There are other difficulties inherent in these electronic encounters. Up to now all that was required of me during a conversation was that I speak up and enunciate clearly. In the future I'll have to remember to stand straight, smile sweetly and keep the best side of my face toward the camera.

Police Seek Fleeing Trio

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police today sought three suspects who fired at and escaped from detectives seeking to question them Tuesday night about the Aug. 23 shooting of a Cincinnati officer.

The trio fired at the detectives as they approached them in the parking lot of the Rockdale Temple, a former synagogue now used for a community center in the Avondale section.

Patrolman Edmund Schindler remained in fair condition at Cincinnati General Hospital. He had been shot through the chest as he sat alone in his cruiser near the same area.

Sergeant Russell Jackson, homicide commander, said the three men ran around the building and police believed they were holding up inside.

A large number of officers were summoned to surround the building, traffic was blocked off for nearly a mile around. Fire Department search lights panned the building as police made a floor-by-floor fruitless search.

Jackson said warrants charging shooting to kill were filed against the men, known by name to police.

The Schindler shooting launched an outcry in Cincinnati and police officials assigned two policemen to each cruiser as a safety measure.

Cincinnati City Council appropriated $54,000 for overtime pay and expanded recruiting as a result.

Fear More University Of Wisconsin Violence

By ARTHUR L. SRB
And
ROBERT E. KESSLER

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — With school reopening only three weeks off, officials of the University of Wisconsin are fearful of a renewal of the bomb-and-fire violence that has plagued the sprawling campus here.

Gone, they feel, are the days of giant, though peaceful, protest marches.

"Now, we'll have 50 radicals bent on destruction," said a university spokesman.

Reopening is Sept. 21. Less than a month previous, however, on Aug. 24, a high-powered bomb exploded in the Army Mathematics Research Center, killing one person and injuring three others.

The bombing stunned, angered and disillusioned many persons in this college community of 170,000 where campus protests have prompted Gov. Warren P. Knowles to mobilize the National Guard three times since 1969 to restore or maintain order.

But not all were shocked by the blast.

"Anybody working for the Army is committing suicide," said a student who writes for an underground newspaper distributed on the 34,000-student campus of the university here.

"The game is not being played in a gentlemanly fashion anymore," he said. "Peaceful protests do no good."

An anonymous group, in an article printed in a circular, hailed the deed as an act against "American genocide throughout the world."

The explosion killed Robert Fassnacht, 33-year-old graduate student, and caused damage estimated at up to $6 million.

The bombing was the most violent in a series of protests which have included arson, window-smashing and an abortive attempt to bomb the U.S. Army ammunition plant at nearby Baraboo on New Year's Day from a plane.

Who are the revolutionaries and their sympathizers? Police claim to know little about them.

The radical community in Madison, however, is believed to be made up of college dropouts, high school runaways, transients who travel from one campus to another, as well as students enrolled at the university.

Radicals who might have actively sought publicity during antiwar protests three years ago have gone underground as demonstrations have escalated from street protests to hit-and-run guerrilla warfare.

The three students who have thus far been arrested for isolated arson attempts had no known organizational ties, police reported.

Publicly organized radical groups on the campus, including the Students for a Democratic Society—SDS—have been torn apart in recent years by dissension over revolutionary tactics and goals.

The defunct Wisconsin SDS chapter, which at one time boasted 300 members, split into fragments after the national group's 1969 Chicago convention.

There are five acknowledged members of the American Communist party and one member of the Progressive Labor Movement, a pro-Chinese Communist faction in the campus community.

But they are scorned by most radicals as "too corny and ideological."

The 500 black students have not staged a demonstration since a February 1969 classroom boycott. The school created a black studies department, one of the blacks' demands, but refused to accept an open admissions policy.

The one visible political group is the Young Socialist Alliance—YSA—a Trotskyite Communist organization which has 35 members.

The YSA is opposed to violence and the use of drugs, according to David Williams, a 21-year-old junior who is a member of the group's executive committee.

Gone from the Madison scene in recent months are the various factions of SDS, which broke into the Mother Jones Revolutionary League, the Weathermen, the White Panther party, and the Youth International party.

"We saw that if you're open and visible, you can be picked off by the police," he said recently.

"The Weathermen as a group is dead, but the Weathermen idea lives on."

"Look at the out-of-sight bombing of the Math Research Center," he explained. "If you go underground and work in 'affinity groups' of two or three freaks, the cops will never catch you."

A 'finity groups are composed of a few radicals who live and operate together on a "buddy" system. Their limited size makes infiltration extremely difficult, police report.

"These affinity groups," said Wisconsin Atty. Gen. Robert Warren, "are developing a form of a domestic Ho Chi Minh trail, moving from campus to campus, infiltrating in their cause of limitless irrationality to kill, maim and destroy."

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWERY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The approaching television season may go into the books as the year when the medium tried hard to mix social enlightenment with entertainment.

Producers of the series speak forcefully of "relevance" and brag about the use of meaningful themes.

Narcotics and drug abuse by the young are such popular ingredients in scripts that they threaten to become dramatic cliches. Pushers are the new villains and the terrible consequences of addiction are underlined.

"Marcus Welby, M.D." will open its season with a story about venereal disease—"pulling no punches," says star Robert Young. It comes at a time when health authorities are alarmed about soaring VD rates.

Racial tensions and the chasm between ethnic and age groups as well as ecological destruction are under the microscope.

Even situation comedies will use such themes. "Headmaster," in a school setting, has stories about drugs, rejection by parents and one episode about a disturbed boy thinking of suicide. This may help parents, but it also may be difficult to handle along with a laugh track.

Many of this season's shows my turn out to be painful to watch. Some nights the seeker of escape viewing may find it hard to get away from reality. But no one can criticize television for shirking its responsibilities.

NBC kicked off the second season of its "First Tuesday" with a two-hour September edition that ranged leisurely from a revealing thumbnail description of Liberia to a report on a Hollywood starlet, Tina Louise, who is now a teacher of yoga.

Generally the program was low key, and it still has a tendency to linger overlong on some features which don't hold up too well. That was particularly true of a report on a Missouri farm family which lives next to a Minuteman missile site.

There was some exclusive film showing life in the William Kienast home where their infant quintuplets are growing up. Shown was bathing time in the kitchen sink, feeding time with help from neighbors, and there were some awesome statistics including 43 gallons of milk a month, 400 diapers a week.

Probably the portion on Liberia was most important since it told a lot in a little time about a country ruled by descendants of American slaves. Its government is similar to that of the United States but its elected president has no political opposition.

OPTIMISTIC — In a television interview in Washington, Lawrence O'Brien, chairman of the Democratic Party, says the Democrats will overcome the handicap of a $9.3 million debt and maintain their majority in Congress in the November elections. He also predicted the number of Democratic governors will be increased.

Alliance Man Shot In Holdup, Dies Of Wounds

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP) — An Alliance service station attendant who was shot and wounded during a $64 holdup early Monday morning died of the wound Tuesday.

Police said Dale Cermak, 33, was wounded on the third night the station had been kept open all night.

Cermak's assailants took the cash register, police said. It was found 12 miles northwest of here.

Three More Ohioans Killed In Asia

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon released the names Tuesday of three more Ohioans killed in action in Southeast Asia.

They were Army Spec. 4 Marcus Hamilton of Logan, Marine Pfc. Ronald E. Chandler of Cincinnati and Navy Hospital Corpsman 2.C. Michael R. Kempel of Cuyahoga Falls.

Good Guys Given Dimes By L.A. Garage Owner

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Every Saturday morning at 10, about 80 boys and girls line up outside Stan Myles' auto body shop in the Watts district to get their dimes.

One by one they walk up to the counter and Stan checks their name off a list he keeps.

Dimes in hand, each youngster then scampers to a store across the street for a soda or ice cream.

Stan, a 50-year-old widower with two grown children, has been handing out the pocket money for five years.

To earn a dime a child must be a member of the Neighborhood Good Guys Club. Anyone can join.

All of the kids are between the ages of 3 and 14. Most of their families are on welfare and in many of the homes there is no father.

How do you become a good guy? "By keeping your hair combed and being nice," says 8-year-old Vanoy Bush.

Good guys also have clean faces, a neat appearance and never break windows, fight or get into trouble.

"They also do anything their mother wants them to do without protest," says Myles, a native of Texas who came to Los Angeles in 1936.

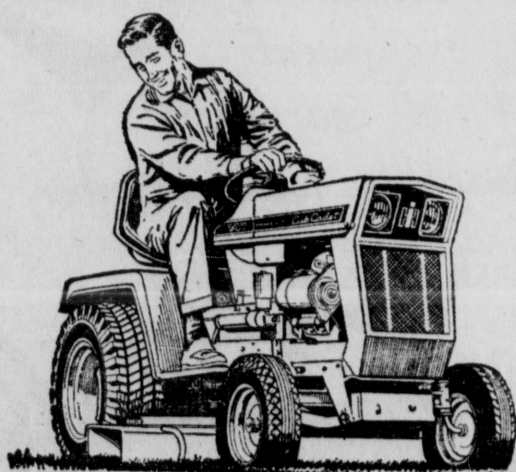

A good report card during the school year brings an extra 15 to 50 cents.

Frankson Grand Jury Out Until Sept. 14

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The special Franklin County grand jury investigating state investment practices returned from a nine-day recess Monday, recessed again Tuesday and will not convene again until Sept. 14.

Asst. Franklin County Prosecutor John Peck said he will seek more information in Columbus and outside the state and, if successful, may call the jury back before Sept. 14.

Solaqua Garden Club Sets Events For Autumn Season

Mrs. Boyd Hines, Route 3, was hostess in her home Friday afternoon for a meeting of Solaqua Garden Club. Mrs. Larry Beard led devotions by reading the 147th Psalm and the poem, "God's Masterpiece."

Mrs. Charles Huston, president, presided at the business session. Reports were made and dues accepted. Birthday donations were received from Mrs. Bernard Savy and Mrs. Hines.

Correspondence was read relative to the workshop classes sponsored by the Ohio Assn. of Garden Clubs to be held in Xenia in the near future. Those desiring information should contact Mrs. Huston.

Mrs. James Hott reported on the new year books, which will be distributed in October, and discussed the program and entertainment calendar for 1970-71.

Solaqua members will participate in the Circleville Pumpkin Show Flower Show.

Emmett Chapel Senior MYF Sets Projects

Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship of Emmett Chapel United Methodist Church met recently in the social room of the church.

Cathy Thompson presented prayer at the beginning of the meeting presided over by Ann Thomas, president. Larry Justice reported on the church signs which will be placed early in September. A discussion was held concerning service projects and members agreed to bring materials to place in Ditty Bags for servicemen in Vietnam at the next meeting. Plans were made to wash the church windows.

Members agreed to have a car wash Sept. 5 at the church beginning 10 a.m. Workers are requested to bring a sack lunch.

Cathy Thompson led devotions using as her theme "Love Is Not Provoked." Cindy Cook will present devotions at the Sept. 6 meeting.

Wedding Plans Are Completed

Plans have been completed for the open church wedding of Miss Vicki Lynn Clifton and John J. Bilchak.

Pastor Carl G. Zehner will officiate the 4:30 p.m. ceremony Saturday, Sept. 5, at Trinity Lutheran Church.

Chapter 90 OES To Honor Masons

Circleville Chapter 90 Order of the Eastern Star will honor the Masons during its 8 p.m. Tuesday meeting in the Masonic temple.

A 6 p.m. carry-in dinner will precede the meeting.

Members will receive their schedules by mail. The club will sponsor an open meeting in November with a tea and guest speaker.

The Council of Garden Clubs will have a Christmas Flower and Craft Show at the Pickaway County Historical Society Museum in December.

For the program Mrs. Savy talked on "How To Store Canna Bulbs." Mrs. Hines, club historian, displayed the 1969-70 Publicity Book, which she had prepared. She discussed in detail requirements relative to size and contents of the book as well as points and credits allowed by the judges.

Members participated in "Garden Club Memories" reminiscing and recalling interesting and humorous incidents of past meetings. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Hines and co-hostess Mrs. Huston to 19 members and three guests.

Floral arrangements of zinnias, marigolds and gladiolus on display throughout the home were made by Miss Mary Shortridge and Mrs. Huston.

Those present for the first meeting of the fall season were Mrs. W. H. Barch, Mrs. Charles Taes, Mrs. Elzie Brooks, Miss Gladys Vause, Mrs. Lee Downs, Mrs. Ben Walker, Mrs. John Eitel, Mrs. Cecil Ward, Mrs. Howard Koch, Mrs. Glenn Fausnaugh, Mrs. Jennie Russell, Mrs. Glenn Rinehart, Mrs. Paul Stout, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Miss Shortridge, Mrs. Savy, Mrs. Hott, and hostesses. Adult Singles Club Plans Future Events

The Adult Singles club met Sunday evening in the Robert E. Gay Community Center in Chillicothe. Welcomed into the club were two new members.

The business session was conducted by the president, Fred Murphy. Members decided to sell refreshments at each meeting with proceeds to go to the club treasury. Plans were made to attend a Fish Fry at the Hallsville United Methodist Church Saturday evening. They are requested to meet at the home of Paul Ross, Route 180 at 5:30 p.m. before going to Hallsville.

On Labor Day the club will go to Tar Hollow Lake for a noon basket dinner and swimming in the afternoon. Those wishing to go are requested to be at the Center at 9:30 a.m.

The club is considering going as a club group to the Ice Show in Columbus in September.

Quiz games were led by Georgia Downs. Winners were Mary Kempton, Alice Stewart, Mary Pollock and William Butcher.

The next regular meeting will be 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Robert E. Gay Community Center, Water and Hickory Sts. in Chillicothe.

Mrs. Marion's Class Meets In Kline Home

Mrs. Marion's Class of Community United Methodist Church met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Frank Kline, 133 Watt St. Mrs. Kline was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Barton Deming, Mrs. Virgil Cress and Mrs. Dwight Steele.

Class president, Mrs. Milton Griest, presided during the business meeting where various reports were heard and new Year Books distributed. The session closed with a benediction.

Mrs. Roger Lozier used as her devotion topic "Music And Religion" from the book of Psalms. To present day choir singing she read from several Psalms. Mrs. Kline played a piano solo, "How Great Thou Art."

During the social hour games were played with prizes awarded to Mrs. Berman Wertman and Mrs. Ross Hamilton.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses to the 19 members present. Miniature bud vases and flowers made by Mrs. Deming were given as favors to each guest.

Marriage Plans Are Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Keeton, Kingston, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Charlene, to Wayne Holbrook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Holbrook, Logan.

Miss Keeton attended Zane Trace High School. Her fiancé is a graduate of Logan High School and is currently employed by RBM in Lancaster.

The wedding will take place 2 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 5, at Community Church in Adelphi. The Rev. Lyle Bainter will perform the open church ceremony.

Students Buy Guide Dogs

HILLINGDON, England (AP) — Primary school pupils here have raised over 1000 pounds ($2,400) in the past 12 years to buy guide dogs for the blind.

The pupils of Colham Manor Primary School, have raised the money by collecting milk bottle tops and aluminum foil to sell to a nearby smelting factory. The dogs cost 250 pounds ($600) each to buy and train.

DOUBLE KNIT JERSEY — The three-piece pant suit shown is in triple tones of mulberry red, plum and oyster white. Each can be worn with other outfits.

ALL SEASON TOPPER — Choose it in a breathable, patent-look Cattelac fabric for any kind of weather.

Versatile Shorty Coat Pairs With Pant Costumes

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Shorter than a full-length coat but longer than a jacket, the topper is perfect for pairing with pants, and therefore it's indispensable to a well-rounded wardrobe. It's a toss-over that makes great sense when the weather's coolish. Choose it in a breathable patent-look fabric and it also doubles as a raincoat when it showers.

Many of the smartest toppers around are, like the one pictured here in double knit jersey, the third piece of a trimly tailored pant suit. All three

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sprayberry of Tavares, Fla., are visiting in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Barnhill Jr. and family, 106 Park St.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Anderson and sons Mark and Stephen of 300 Edwards Road, and his mother and sister, Mrs. Beatrice Anderson and Miss Norma Jean Anderson of Williamsport, have returned from a visit with relatives in Martinsville, Va., and Kingsport, Tenn.

Plastic Coffins Sweep Market

GLENEALY, Ireland (AP) — An Irishman who feels that in today's "plastic society" even wooden coffins are out of date has applied for a world patent for the manufacture of rot-proof, hygienic, unbreakable plastic coffins. Des Kinsella says the coffins are ideal for transporting bodies by air and sea because they are so light. Also, the coffin lid can be made of transparent material, if desired.

Guild 47 Will Meet

Mrs. Juanita Schleich, 255 Lewis Road, will host Berger Hospital Guild 47 in her home 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Members are reminded to bring individual bazaar projects. The traveling prize will be furnished by Mrs. Brenda Neff.

Add Punch To A Table For A Relaxing Party

By ALICE DENHOFF

Those wise enough to avoid holiday weekend traffic can generally round up others of the same ilk and plan a party. So how about a Labor Day get-together before things get hectic again.

Plan for a relaxed, delightful porch or patio party, cooling punches, snacks light and substantial, platters of cold cuts and a variety of fixings. Just a relaxed pleasant party, light on the hostess, a delight for guests.

LEMON STRAWBERRY PUNCH

1 package (3 ounces) strawberry gelatin
1/2 cup boiling water
1 can (46 ounces) lemon pink Hawaiian punch
1 package (16 ounces) frozen sliced strawberries, thawed
1 bottle (28 fluid ounces) ginger ale, chilled
Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add next 2 ingredients. Chill.

Just before serving, add ginger ale.
Makes about 20 4-ounce servings.

SUMMER PATIO PUNCH

1 can (46 ounces) lemon pink Hawaiian punch chilled
1 can (6 ounces) frozen grapefruit juice concentrate
1 cup ice water
2 cups club soda chilled
1/2 cup sugar
1 lemon

Combine all ingredients, except lemon. Slice lemon in rounds, fluting edges, if desired. Pour punch into bowl or pitcher. Add lemon garnish. Makes about 18 4-ounce servings.

Pretty to look at, good to taste, that is:

LEMON DELIGHT

1 quart lemon sherbet
1 can (46 ounces) lemon pink Hawaiian punch
2 cups ginger ale
Place 2 scoops of sherbet in each of 6 tall glasses. Combine next 2 ingredients and pour over sherbet. Garnish with mint leaves, if desired, and serve with straws or ice tea spoons. Makes 6 16-ounce servings.

In the ice cream department, it's a nice notion to do a big sundae. Scoop two or three favorite flavors into a large bowl. Let each guest help himself, then top ice cream with light molasses and chopped nuts.

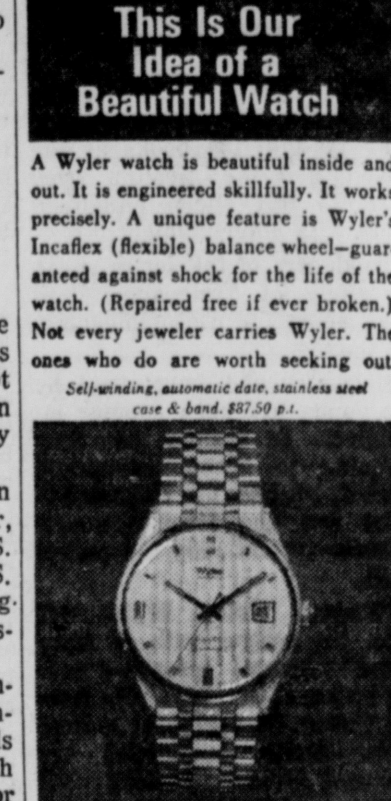

Not for calorie counters, of course, but, unfortunately, a real temptation!

Solaqua Garden Club Sets Events For Autumn Season

Mrs. Boyd Hines, Route 3, was hostess in her home Friday afternoon for a meeting of Solaqua Garden Club. Mrs. Larry Beard led devotions by reading the 147th Psalm and the poem, "God's Masterpiece."

Mrs. Charles Huston, president, presided at the business session. Reports were made and dues accepted. Birthday donations were received from Mrs. Bernard Savy and Mrs. Hines.

Correspondence was read relative to the workshop classes sponsored by the Ohio Assn. of Garden Clubs to be held in Xenia in the near future. Those desiring information should contact Mrs. Huston.

Mrs. James Hott reported on the new year books, which will be distributed in October, and discussed the program and entertainment calendar for 1970-71.

Solaqua members will participate in the Circleville Pumpkin Show Flower Show.

Emmett Chapel Senior MYF Sets Projects

Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship of Emmett Chapel United Methodist Church met recently in the social room of the church.

Cathy Thompson presented prayer at the beginning of the meeting presided over by Ann Thomas, president. Larry Justice reported on the church signs which will be placed early in September. A discussion was held concerning service projects and members agreed to bring materials to place in Ditty Bags for servicemen in Vietnam at the next meeting. Plans were made to wash the church windows.

Members agreed to have a car wash Sept. 5 at the church beginning 10 a.m. Workers are requested to bring a sack lunch.

Cathy Thompson led devotions using as her theme "Love Is Not Provoked." Cindy Cook will present devotions at the Sept. 6 meeting.

Daybook of America 1770-1870-1970

By CLARK KINNAIRD

No. 67 "An aching molar finally drove a Scot to a dentist. As the dentist was pulling away, Jock stopped him. 'If it costs five shillins to get out the tooth, how much now for just loosenin' it?'"

"A Scot was wandering uncertainly in a street with trousers over an arm. A friend called out, 'Sandy, where ye a-goin'?' The reply was, 'Ah'm lookin' for the Aberdeen Free Press.'"

"Scot: The only golfer who wouldn't knock a golf ball out of sight."

Such attributions of miserliness to Scotsmen were fostered in the United States during later years. Harry Lauder sang, danced, joked across the country.

Lauder, born a century ago (Aug. 14, 1870) to a Scottish crofter's wife, had to be a worker at eleven. A mellow baritone and sense of humor developed in miners' rough resorts enabled him to escape from the diggings. Blithe minstrelsy adapted to traditional airs and Robert Burnsian sentiment was an entertaining contrast to a concept of the typical Scot as a coldly mirthless puritan.

Eventual success at London music halls naturally led to bookings in Canada and the United States, with their large numbers of transplanted Scots. Press-agency was used to insure Lauder would be an attraction to other than Scots. Young Jack Lait, later a famous reporter, associated Lauder with extreme penuriousness, through an imaginative flow of thrift japey, in opportune contrast to another Scot, Andrew Carnegie, who was giving away millions. The actor had a Harry Lauder Fund for disabled soldiers of World War I (in which his only son was killed), and did not publicize other philanthropies (as Carnegie did).

Caricature of Lauder in characteristic stage costume, from cover of sheet music of his "I Love a Lassie," as published in U.S.A., 1906. Other songs demanded by audiences over and over during some 40 crossings of the continent—including repeated "farewell tours"—were "Roamin' in th' Gloamin'" and "It's Nice to Get Up in the Mornin' But It's Nicier to Lie in Yer Bed." Lauder died at Strathaven, Scotland, shortly before eighty. He had been knighted by King George V.

Joliet Prison Inmate Linked To 18 Unsolved Slayings

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A Michigan investigator says a 41-year-old inmate of Joliet Prison in Illinois is the prime suspect in 18 unsolved sex slayings in Michigan, the Chicago area and Cleveland.

Andrew L. Novikoff, chief investigator for the Berrien County, Mich., prosecutor's office, said Tuesday that there is a possible link between Clyde W. Haynes and the slayings.

He said Haynes, now serving a 320-year sentence, was in the general area of the 18 slayings. In fact, Novikoff said, Haynes lived across the street from one of the Cleveland victims, Ruth Logans.

Haynes lived in Cleveland under the name of James Darnell, Novikoff said. The Cleveland mutilation slaying took place in 1963 and 1964.

"By studying photographs of the victims it was obvious they were killed by the same man," Novikoff said. He has studied the slayings for five years.

He said the slain women were mutilated with a sharp instrument and then they were either strangled or had their throats slashed.

Haynes was arrested in the Chicago area in 1966 after a woman who had been assaulted, robbed and left to die in a field identified Haynes as her assailant.

Novikoff said the woman was quoted as saying Haynes told her: "You'll be rotten like the rest of the women when they find you."

He said that while Haynes was awaiting trial he told a cellmate in the Cook County Jail (Chicago) that he had "killed a couple of women in the fruit country in Michigan."

Novikoff said that while studying cases in Chicago he found that while Haynes lived there from mid-1965 until his arrest there had been five rape-slayings in Cook County and five others in two adjacent counties.

He said those slayings, the four in his county in Michigan and the four in Cleveland followed the same pattern.

Mrs. Logans was found dead in her East Side Cleveland home in December, 1963, and in January, 1964, three more women were raped, mutilated and slain on the city's East Side. The victims were Mrs. Artha Hawkins, 26, Mrs. Annie Fay Chandler, 35, and Miss Janice Hoppper, 22.

Novikoff said his main interest in solving the Berrien County slayings was to "allay the fears of people in my community that a sadistic killer is still loose."

European Nations Fight U.S. Leadership In Plane Output

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eight European nations are combining efforts to build a family of aircraft to challenge the U.S. role as the world's aviation leader, says William M. Magruder, chief Nixon administration backer of America's faster-than-sound airliner.

Magruder, SST development director for the Department of Transportation, said the leader of this airline fleet will be the British-French Concorde, the 1,400-mile-an-hour transport already being flight-tested super-sonically.

Viet Cease-Fire Pushed By Solon

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. Rep. William Minshall, R-Ohio, says he has urged President Nixon to give urgent consideration to a proposal for a cease fire throughout Vietnam.

Minshall, in San Francisco en route to Korea, said Monday night that he asked Nixon in a telegram to the President's San Clemente home "to give immediate and urgent consideration to a proposal for a cease fire throughout Vietnam in an effort to try to move stalled Paris peace talks off dead center."

"I firmly believe that if the North Vietnamese agree to such a proposal the peace talks can have meaningful and fruitful results."

Trucking Firm To Hire Negroes
WASHINGTON (AP) — Roadway Express, Inc., the nation's third largest trucking firm, will offer jobs to 105 blacks the firm had once rejected as employment prospects.

The Justice Department said Tuesday the offers are part of a consent decree settling a 1968 job discrimination suit it filed against the Akron, Ohio, company.

The department said the case is the first in which the government has attempted to enjoin a company's nationwide operations.

Ho Chi Minh Doctrine 'Idle Words'?

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

"All men are created equal," said the document. "They are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights. Among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

With those words 25 years ago today, a declaration framed by Ho Chi Minh proclaimed independence for what he called the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, with himself as president. Ho, a veteran international Communist and agent of Moscow, long had planned to use the American words for his proclamation. Perhaps it was sincere admiration for the 1776 declaration, but perhaps, too, it was a device to mask Ho the Communist behind Ho the patriot.

Ho died a year ago Wednesday, at the age of 79. This week North Vietnam is commemorating the 25th anniversary and Ho's death, and the tone of the accompanying propaganda carries a strong suggestion of political uneasiness in Hanoi. Evidently some tension has been generated over the question of how Ho's legacy of power is to be distributed.

Ho had no successor. He could not have had one, since none of his heirs had anything like his stature. Thus there is now repeated stress in the Hanoi press on the motion of "collective leadership."

None of this seems likely to have any immediate effect upon the wars in South Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia. Up to now the ruling Politburo in Hanoi has not let its political differences interfere with the machinery of battle. There could be a long-range impact, nonetheless, since what apparently has been at issue in Hanoi has been the "how" of the war—whether "protracted war" should continue for years, or whether heavier investment should be made in a bid for a less distant decision.

The protracted war concept was originally espoused by Red China's Mao Tse-tung and supported in Hanoi by Truong Chinh, a powerful Politburo member. Chinh lost out early in 1968 when Hanoi decided to go all-out with the Tet offensive. Le Duan, now 52, as first secretary of the ruling Laodong Workers' party seemed the architect of the strategy.

Curiously, however, both sides in the argument appeared to win out, a development which might have averted a Politburo showdown. The Tet offensive failed to achieve its objectives, but it was followed by President Lyndon B. Johnson's departure from the 1968 presidential campaign, by talks in Paris, by the end to bombings of the North and, perhaps most significant of all, by intensified turmoil in the United States generated by the war issue.

Today, Hanoi's leaders seem resigned to protracted war for as long as necessary, while hopeful still of forcing the U.S. presence out of Vietnam entirely before South Vietnam's regime can become stable enough to resist the North's pressure. The North Vietnamese effort thus appears to have been slowed, even though Hanoi is more involved than ever as the result of the new front in Cambodia.

Hanoi has huge home front problems, as its propaganda makes abundantly clear. It has lots of military hardware and there is more where it came from, but the country is painfully short in civilian manpower and in every day necessities for the people. So the stress now is on "using small forces to defeat larger forces." This suggests that the Viet Cong in the South must rely more heavily on their own guerrilla tactics.

If there is a struggle for power going on at the top, no clear evidence of it comes through the propaganda at the present time. The indications are that Le Duan, the practical man as distinct from the inflexible ideologist Truong Chinh, has the dominant voice in the collective. He has been stressing in published statements the need for the minority to submit to majority decisions.

And so, 25 years after the invocation of the ringing words of the American Declaration of independence, it seems clear that equality and the pursuit of happiness have not come to the North Vietnamese.

One gets the impression that the men whom Ho brought up as leaders over the past quarter-century are obliged today to be gamblers. If they can hold out long enough, domination of all Vietnam, North and South, may one day be theirs. But the price will be heavy. Until then, the already tight North Vietnamese belt must be drawn even tighter.

Warming Trend Fans Through U.S. Midsection

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A warming trend fanned through the midcontinent today, but cool weather lingered in the northeast and a fresh outbreak of chilly temperatures crept out of the northern Rockies.

Thundershowers broke out in scattered areas from eastern Texas to the northern plains. Heavy rains drenched some Texas communities again Tuesday night. Two inches fell at Victoria.

The return to more seasonal weather in the nation's midsection drove temperatures into the 90s or higher Tuesday in parts of the Great Plains. The mercury soared past 100 at a few points in South Dakota.

Brisk autumnlike readings in the 40s again were common from Michigan to Maine in the predawn hours. A few 30s chilled sections of New England.

Daybook of America 1770-1870-1970 By CLARK KINNAIRD

No. 67 "An aching molar finally drove a Scot to a dentist. As the dentist was pulling away, Jock stopped him. 'If it costs five shillin's to get out the tooth, how much now for just loosenin' it?'"

"A Scot was wandering uncertainly in a street with trousers over an arm. A friend called out, 'Sandy, where ye a-goin'?' The reply was, 'Ah'm lookin' for the Aberdeen Free Press.'"

"Scot: The only golfer who wouldn't knock a golf ball out of sight."

Such attributions of miserliness to Scotsmen were fostered in the United States during later years Harry Lauder sang, danced, joked across the country.

Lauder, born a century ago (Aug. 14, 1870) to a Scottish crofter's wife, had to be a worker at eleven. A mellow baritone and sense of humor developed in miners' rough resorts enabled him to escape from the diggings. Blithe minstrelsy adapted to traditional airs and Robert Burnsian sentiment was an entertaining contrast to a concept of the typical Scot as a coldly mirthless puritan.

Eventual success at London music halls naturally led to bookings in Canada and the United States, with their large numbers of transplanted Scots. Press-agency was used to insure Lauder would be an attraction to other than Scots. Young Jack Laiz, later a famous reporter, associated Lauder with extreme penuriousness, through an imaginative flow of thrift jargon, in opportune contrast to another Scot, Andrew Carnegie, who was giving away millions. The actor had a Harry Lauder Fund for disabled soldiers of World War I (in which his only son was killed), and did not publicize other philanthropies (as Carnegie did).

Caricature of Lauder in characteristic stage costume, from cover of sheet music of his "I Love a Lassie," as published in U.S.A., 1906. Other songs demanded by audiences over and over during some 40 crossings of the continent—including repeated "farewell tours"—were "Roamin' in th' Gloamin'" and "It's Nice to Get Up in the Mornin' But It's Nicer to Lie in Yer Bed." Lauder died at Strathaven, Scotland, shortly before eighty. He had been knighted by King George V.

Joliet Prison Inmate Linked To 18 Unsolved Slayings

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A Michigan investigator says a 41-year-old inmate of Joliet Prison in Illinois is the prime suspect in 18 unsolved sex slayings in Michigan, the Chicago area and Cleveland.

Andrew L. Novikoff, chief investigator for the Berrien County, Mich., prosecutor's office, said Tuesday that there is a possible link between Clyde W. Haynes and the slayings.

He said Haynes, now serving a 320-year sentence, was in the general area of the 18 slayings. In fact, Novikoff said, Haynes lived across the street from one of the Cleveland victims, Ruth Logans.

Haynes lived in Cleveland under the name of James Darnell, Novikoff said. The Cleveland mutilation slaying took place in 1963 and 1964.

"By studying photographs of the victims it was obvious they were killed by the same man," Novikoff said. He has studied the slayings for five years.

He said the slain women were mutilated with a sharp instrument and then they were either strangled or had their throats slashed.

Haynes was arrested in the Chicago area in 1966 after a woman who had been assaulted, robbed and left to die in a field identified Haynes as her assailant.

Novikoff said the woman was quoted as saying Haynes told her: "You'll be rotten like the rest of the women when they find you."

He said that while Haynes was awaiting trial he told a cellmate in the Cook County Jail (Chicago) that he had "killed a couple of women in the fruit country in Michigan."

Novikoff said that while studying cases in Chicago he found that while Haynes lived there from mid-1965 until his arrest there had been five rape-slayings in Cook County and five others in two adjacent counties.

He said those slayings, the four in his county in Michigan and the four in Cleveland followed the same pattern.

Mrs. Logans was found dead in her East Side Cleveland home in December, 1963, and in January, 1964, three more women were raped, mutilated and slain on the city's East Side. The victims were Mrs. Arotha Hawkins, 26, Mrs. Annie Fay Chandler, 35, and Miss Janice Hopper, 22.

Novikoff said his main interest in solving the Berrien County slayings was to "allay the fears of people in my community that a sadistic killer is still loose."

European Nations Fight U.S. Leadership In Plane Output

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eight European nations are combining efforts to build a family of aircraft to challenge the U.S. role as the world's aviation leader, says William M. Magruder, chief Nixon administration backer of America's faster-than-sound airliner. Magruder, SST development director for the Department of Transportation, said the leader of this airline fleet will be the British-French Concorde, the 1,400-mile-an-hour transport already being flight-tested supersonically.

Viet Cease-Fire Pushed By Solon

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. Rep. William Minshall, R-Ohio, says he has urged President Nixon to give urgent consideration to a proposal for a cease fire throughout Vietnam.

Minshall, in San Francisco en route to Korea, said Monday night that he asked Nixon in a telegram to the President's San Clemente home "to give immediate and urgent consideration to a proposal for a cease fire throughout Vietnam in an effort to try to move stalled Paris peace talks off dead center."

"I firmly believe that if the North Vietnamese agree to such a proposal the peace talks can have meaningful and fruitful results."

Lunch Served In State Parks

How Weather Looks Today

OHIO WEATHER SUMMARY

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official weather bureau summary for Ohio:

Ohioans are in for a change as a gradual warming trend begins today and lasts through Thursday.

Southerly winds will increase as will the moisture content of the air as the warm air approaches and passes the state.

Scattered showers and thundershowers will develop in southwest Ohio by late tonight and may pop up here and there over the state Thursday and Friday.

Tonight's lows will be in the upper 50s to the lower 60s. Thursday maximum readings will go up into the 80s.

Friday's outlook shows warm weather with a continued chance of thundershowers while the extended outlook for Saturday and Sunday indicates generally fair and mild.

—FORECASTS—

Ohio — Increasing cloudiness and warmer with chance of thundershowers Thursday. Low tonight in the upper 50s to lower 60s. High Thursday in the 80s. Outlook for Friday, warm, with chance of thundershowers.

CENTRAL AND SOUTHEAST — Increasing cloudiness and not as cool tonight, lows near 60. Variable cloudiness and warm Thursday with chance of thundershowers, highs in the 80s. Outlook for Friday, considerable cloudiness and warm with chance of thundershowers.

NORTHWEST INLAND AND WEST LAKE SHORE — Increasing cloudiness and not as cool tonight, lows in the upper 50s to the lower 60s. Variable cloudiness and warm with chance of thundershowers Thursday, highs in the 80s. Outlook for Friday, considerable cloudiness and warm with chance of thundershowers.

WEST CENTRAL AND SOUTHWEST — Increasing cloudiness and not as cool with chance of showers tonight, lows the lower 60s. Variable cloudiness and warm with chance of thundershowers Thursday, highs in the 80s. Outlook for Friday, considerable cloudiness and warm with chance of thundershowers.

Trucking Firm To Hire Negroes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Roadway Express, Inc., the nation's third largest trucking firm, will offer jobs to 105 blacks the firm had once rejected as employment prospects.

The Justice Department said Tuesday the offers are part of a consent decree settling a 1968 job discrimination suit it filed against the Akron, Ohio, company.

The department said the case is the first in which the government has attempted to enjoin a company's nationwide operations.

Ho Chi Minh Doctrine 'Idle Words'?

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

"All men are created equal," said the document. "They are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights. Among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

With those words 25 years ago today, a declaration framed by Ho Chi Minh proclaimed independence for what he called the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, with himself as president. Ho, a veteran international Communist and agent of Moscow, long had planned to use the American words for his proclamation. Perhaps it was sincere admiration for the 1776 declaration, but perhaps, too, it was a device to mask Ho the Communist behind Ho the patriot.

Ho died a year ago Wednesday, at the age of 79. This week North Vietnam is commemorating the 25th anniversary and Ho's death, and the tone of the accompanying propaganda carries a strong suggestion of political uneasiness in Hanoi. Women Rip Randolph Over 'Braless Bubblehead' Talk

By BILL NEIKIRK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Jennings Randolph, the West Virginia Democrat who called women's liberationists a "small band of braless bubbleheads," has been told by an angry female it is none of his "damn business" whether she wears a bra.

The comment came in a flood of angry letters and telegrams that Randolph has received since making his speech Wednesday in the Senate.

"Perhaps you were weaned too soon..." wrote one infuriated woman over Randolph's speech last Wednesday in the Senate.

"This is one of your bubblehead constituents," still another said. "The least you could have done on the day women decided to demonstrate for their rights was to keep your thoughts to yourself."

Randolph has taken all the letters in stride, an aide said. But the aide quickly pointed out the West Virginia Democrat is sponsoring an amendment guaranteeing equal rights for women.

The senator is replying to each of the more than 300 letters and telegrams and enclosing a copy of his Senate speech, which also said women are making progress in all fields.

But the "bubblehead" and "braless" references clearly touched off women's nerves.

"I may well be what you have referred to as a bubblehead," said one letter. "As to whether I wear a bra, that is none of your damn business."

"Cute rhetoric in the light of a serious situation hardly endears you to American women," said another constituent. And on they went:

"Don't you often like to unbutton your collar and shed your tie?" asked a woman who compared that to going braless.

"Would you dare to coin a similar phrase in referring to any other oppressed group?" Randolph's press aide, Bill Davis, said 15 to 20 per cent of the letters have been favorable.

The senator, in his speech, praised the 50th anniversary of the adoption of the woman's suffrage amendment and added no field is closed to the woman who is capable and well-trained.

But, he said, the progress is being retarded by a "strange and strident voice that professes to speak for all women—everywhere."

Big Three Carmakers Offer $1.4 Billion Wage Increase

By A. F. MAHAN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — The Big Three automakers Tuesday offered the United Auto Workers a 7.5 per cent wage increase in proposed new three-year contracts but declined to remove a cap on a cost-of-living wage escalator.

The union has insisted that an unlimited cost of living wage escalator "is the price of peace in this industry."

The companies' insistence on maintaining a maximum limit of eight cents hourly per year in cost of living boosts, made a strike against one of the automakers appear certain.

Current three-pact pacts covering 730,000 workers at the Big Three expire Sept. 14.

General Motors said it was offering the union a package which would cost the company $1.4 billion in wages alone and described its offer as "the largest economic proposal in its history."

The companies' offers included:

- A 7.5 per cent wage increase.
- Retirement after 30 years service at $500 a month at age 60 at General Motors and age 62 at Ford. Chrysler said its plan would allow a worker at age 65 after 35 years' service to retire at $551 a month.
- Retirement at 60 with 30 years service now is possible at $400 a month.
- The union has insisted that retirement at a minimum of $500 monthly be permitted after 30 years service, regardless of age.

GM proposed a 7½ per cent general wage increase, ranging from 26-48 cents an hour. However, employees making less than $3.54 hourly would get nothing in addition 26 cents hourly which goes into effect automatically Sept. 15 under terms of current three year pacts.

The UAW has demanded "a substantial wage increase," but has specified no specific cents per hour.

UAW President Leonard Woodcock, however, has indicated it must be in the range 8 per cent on top of the 26 cents or roughly 14 per cent in the first year.

Some 730,000 of the union's 1.6 million members are employed by the Big Three automakers.

The union's International Executive Board traditionally picks a target company to press for a pattern-setting settlement—or, in case of continued disagreement, to strike. The last UAW strike, against Ford in 1967, lasted eight weeks.

The UAW also is negotiating a new contract with American Motors, but the present contract there does not expire until mid-October.

The Big Three settlement traditionally serves as the pattern for new pacts with supply plants and the agricultural implement and aerospace industries.

The AFL-CIO has pledged its support to the UAW despite the fact the auto union has dropped out of the giant labor organization.

Woodcock told the UAW Community Action Council in Grand Rapids Monday that the union would not be intimidated by either a threat of a lockout by automakers or a prolonged strike. There has been some speculation in Eastern financial circles that the automakers may resort to an industrywide lockout if one company is struck.

Woodcock, who succeeded the late UAW President Walter P. Reuther, repeated Monday that the UAW would strike one of the automakers unless a pattern-setting contract is reached by midnight Sept. 14, when current three-year pacts expire.

OEA Declares Entire State Under Sanction

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A professional sanction on the state until a tax reform program is enacted "to adequately fund the public schools" was declared Tuesday by the Ohio Education Association.

J. Alan Aufderheide, OEA president, said at a news conference here that the executive committee of the 88,600-member organization adopted the sanction resolution during its annual local leaders conference at Kent State University.

The OEA placed Ohio on a sanction alert last December at the OEA Representative Assembly in Columbus.

"What the OEA has done is to say to each citizen of this state, as well as the rest of the country, that Ohio's public schools are in need of immediate attention," Aufderheide said.

The resolution charged that Ohio "has neglected its public schools to the extent that it ranks near the bottom of most financial measurements of quality, including per pupil expenditures and the amount of financial resources devoted to the public schools."

The action marked the first time in the OEA's 123-year history that a sanction had been declared against the entire state.

The executive committee said the sanctions will remain in effect until changes are made in Ohio's tax structure to adequately fund the public schools. The committee added that "the situation must be corrected by the next session of the legislature."

One of the principal effects of the sanction is to discourage accepting teaching jobs in the state.

Hilliard Hires New Policemen As Replacements

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Richard E. Davis, safety director of suburban Hilliard, began hiring new patrolmen Tuesday to replace 10 police department employees, including Chief Robert F. Mayer, who resigned.

The chief, four patrolmen and five radio operators quit at midnight Monday when city officials turned down their demands that Davis be fired.

Four Franklin County sheriff's deputies, Davis, one of the two new patrolmen, a Hilliard sergeant and two volunteers provided protection for the city of 8,600 Tuesday.

Davis was named as Hilliard's first safety director in June and said he since has been trying to build discipline in the police force. His opponents claimed his demands have been unreasonable.

Five Points News

By Mrs. Francis Furniss

There were 49 present at the United Methodist Sunday School Sunday morning. Worship service followed with 85 present. The W.S.C.S. will meet at the church Wednesday evening Sept. 2 at 8 p.m. All members are urged to attend.

Mrs. William Davis, director of the United Methodist Junior Choir honored her choir with a swimming party Friday afternoon at Gold Cliff Park, Circleville. Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Wig Deal Causes Shaky Friendship

DEAR ABBY: About six months ago I won a wig at a raffle at our church bazaar. It was a good one that would sell for $85 in any store. I tried it on and my husband said I looked like Merv Griffin. Well, I never wore it.

One day a friend of mine came over and asked me what I did with the wig I had won. I told her it was still in the box. She asked if she could try it on. We both thought it looked great on her. Then she asked if she could take it home and show it to her husband, so I said sure.

The next morning she called and said she'd give me $35 for it, which was a good deal for me because I only paid a dollar for the raffle ticket I won it with.

She kept the wig and paid me the money. A deal, right. Well, three months later she called and asked if she could bring the wig back. She said she wore it once and her husband decided he didn't like it on her, and she has no use for it.

Do I have to take the wig back?

MAD DEAR MAD: No. Tell your friend to sell the wig to Merv Griffin. If he ever flips his wig, he'll have a spare.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my husband and his foolish ways.

We have five children, ages 3 to 17. We can't put a light on to go to the bathroom at night. (It's "wasting electricity.") If the telephone rings after 8 p.m. (it's usually for one of the kids) my husband wants to tear the phone out of the wall. (He did that twice.)

He locks his dirty clothes in his tool box in the cellar so I can't wash them. Once he took a bolt out of my washing machine so I couldn't use it. (He says the machine uses too much hot water.)

Our 13-year-old forgot to put the scissors back in its proper place, so my husband became so furious, he smashed a beer bottle against the wall.

Once he hurt the youngest one so bad I had to take him to the doctor to get him checked. He also hurt the 13-year-old bad enough for a doctor's care. I should have told the doctor how these kids got hurt but I didn't. Now I regret it.

Can you do anything about my problem. This man is murder to live with.

NO NAME, PLEASE DEAR NO NAME: Your husband's ways are more than "foolish." They are symptoms of a sick, and potentially dangerous man. See that he gets help before he does serious bodily harm to you or to one of the children. It's not too late to report him now. I sincerely hope you do.

DEAR ABBY: For the last year and a half my son has been keeping steady company with a girl I'll call Judy. The other evening Judy and her mother paid me a visit. I had no idea they were coming, and it just so happened that I was on the telephone talking to my daughter at the time. I must admit we talked for some time. I would say it was about an hour or so.

Well, my son's girl friend says that she will never come to my house again—that I was rude, inconsiderate and insulting! She said I should have cut the conversation with my daughter short, and entertained her and her mother.

Abby, she really hurt me with those words. I don't feel that I was in the wrong because there were other members of the family in the house to keep Judy and her mother company while I was on the phone.

I am terribly upset over this and wish you would tell me what I should do about it, if anything.

UPSET DEAR UP: I think you owe Judy and her mother an apology. An hour is a long time for visitors to be entertained by "other members of the family" when they came especially to visit with you.

DEAR ABBY: We thoroughly agree with "SICK OF HYPOCRITES." Invariable, when an "X" rated movie is shown in our theater, some people will sit through it twice, and then come out and complain about how disgusting it was. Some even have the gall to ask for their money back.

We feel that the most "disgusting" thing about an "X"

Mrs. Georgia Sweet — 869-2462

On Tuesday evening, August 25, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rowland spent the evening with Mrs. Mary Greasse Justice in Harrisburg. They had a very enjoyable evening looking at pictures and other articles of interest from Arizona.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Justice had spent an evening with the Rowlands. She was to leave on Mon., Aug. 31 to go back to Arizona to work with the Indian children which she loves to do and finds very rewarding. We all wish Mary, as an old friend, lots of luck and know she will succeed at whatever she undertakes.

Debbie Joy Wardell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wardell, Tonya Jo Musselman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Musselman, and Julie Backham, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Backham were among a group of dance students privileged to entertain with a tap dance review, presented by the Peggy Halley Dance Studio of Grove City. The group were honored to be asked to appear at the Ohio State Fair on Sunday afternoon.

On Sunday, Aug. 30, Mrs. Jennie Rowland celebrated her birthday with a dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rowland with 11 relatives and friends present. Then later, Mr. Randall McKenzie came and spent the afternoon with them. Jennie's birthday was August 27.

Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sweet were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown and son Robbie of Ashville.

Betsy Bayes daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bayes of Route 1, Orient, received the Associate in Arts degree on June 15 from Mt. Vernon College (Nazarene College) in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, where she is a member of the first graduating class of this new college of liberal arts and sciences.

THEATER OWNER What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

At the college she was a member of the college drama club and an editorial editor for the college newspaper. She majored in elementary education.

Sorry to report Mrs. Mary Rowland has been home from work on sick leave for several weeks now and wish her a quick recovery.

Quite a few from here enjoyed the Westfall Mustang Round-up at the high school on Friday night. Entertainment included a fish fry, dunking machine, water balloon concession, talent contest and door prizes with entertainment by the Westfall Band.

On the birthday list: Eddie Van Hoose, Pam Liff, Aug. 30; Kim Tigner, Aug. 31; Rich and Nicky Conley, Bill Shea, Becky Gantz, Edna Ingman, Sept. 1; Geneva Graham, Paula Nibert, Sept. 3; Lowell Hamrick, Eileen Easterday, Sept. 4; Shirley Van Hoose, Chris Hamrick, Sept. 5.

Anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. John Lake Jr. on Sept. 1 and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lewis, Sept. 4.

Farmers Getting Lower Prices For Products

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says prices received by farmers for raw products dropped 3 per cent in the July 15-Aug. 15 period, marking the largest 30-day decline since October, 1948.

The crop reporting board said Monday that lower prices for hogs, cattle, potatoes and pigs contributed most to the decrease. Higher prices for milk, lettuce and wheat partially offset the loss.

The over-all August index for prices paid farmers was put at 276 per cent of the 1910-14 base period, compared with 286 per cent a month earlier and the five-year high of 290 last February.

The board noted that the report did not reflect the sharp grain market fluctuations the past two weeks caused by reports of 1970 corn losses because of the Southern leaf blight.

Dear Abby:

Wig Deal Causes Shaky Friendship

DEAR ABBY: About six months ago I won a wig at a raffle at our church bazaar. It was a good one that would sell for $65 in any store. I tried it on and my husband said I looked like Merv Griffin. Well, I never wore it.

One day a friend of mine came over and asked me what I did with the wig I had won. I told her it was still in the box. She asked if she could try it on. We both thought it looked great on her. Then she asked if she could take it home and show it to her husband, so I said sure.

The next morning she called and said she'd give me $35 for it, which was a good deal for me because I only paid a dollar for the raffle ticket I won it with.

She kept the wig and paid me the money. A deal, right. Well, three months later she called and asked if she could bring the wig back. She said she wore it once and her husband decided he didn't like it on her, and she has no use for it.

Do I have to take the wig back?

MAD: No. Tell your friend to sell the wig to Merv Griffin. If he ever flips his wig, he'll have a spare.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my husband and his foolish ways.

We have five children, ages 3 to 17. We can't put a light on to go to the bathroom at night. (It's "wasting electricity.") If the telephone rings after 8 p.m. (it's usually for one of the kids) my husband wants to tear the phone out of the wall. (He did that twice.)

He locks his dirty clothes in his tool box in the cellar so I can't wash them. Once he took a bolt out of my washing machine so I couldn't use it. (He says the machine uses too much hot water.)

Our 13-year-old forgot to put the scissors back in its proper place, so my husband became so furious, he smashed a beer bottle against the wall.

Once he hurt the youngest one so bad I had to take him to the doctor to get him checked. He also hurt the 13-year-old bad enough for a doctor's care. I should have told the doctor how these kids got hurt but I didn't. Now I regret it.

Can you do anything about my problem? This man is murder to live with.

NO NAME, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Your husband's ways are more than "foolish." They are symptoms of a sick, and potentially dangerous man. See that he gets help before he does serious bodily harm to you or to one of the children. It's not too late to report him now. I sincerely hope you do.

DEAR ABBY: For the last year and a half my son has been keeping steady company with a girl I'll call Judy. The other evening Judy and her mother paid me a visit. I had no idea they were coming and it just so happened that I was on the telephone talking to my daughter at the time. I must admit we talked for some time. I would say it was about an hour or so.

Well, my son's girl friend says that she will never come to my house again—that I was rude, inconsiderate and insulting! She said I should have cut the conversation with my daughter short, and entertained her and her mother.

Abby, she really hurt me with those words. I don't feel that I was in the wrong because there were other members of the family in the house to keep Judy and her mother company while I was on the phone.

I am terribly upset over this and wish you would tell me what I should do about it, if anything.

UPSET

DEAR UP: I think you owe Judy and her mother an apology. An hour is a long time for visitors to be entertained by "other members of the family" when they came especially to visit with you.

DEAR ABBY: We thoroughly agree with "SICK OF HYPOCRITES." Invariable, when an "X" rated movie is shown in our theater, some people will sit through it twice, and then come out and complain about how disgusting it was. Some even have the gall to ask for their money back.

We feel that the most "disgusting" thing about an "X" rated film is the kind of people who come to see them.

Mrs. Georgia Sweet — 869-2462

On Tuesday evening, August 25, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rowland spent the evening with Mrs. Mary Greassle Justice in Harrisburg. They had a very enjoyable evening looking at pictures and other articles of interest from Arizona.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Justice had spent an evening with the Rowlands. She was to leave on Mon., Aug. 31 to go back to Arizona to work with the Indian children which she loves to do and finds very rewarding. We all wish Mary, as an old friend, lots of luck and know she will succeed at whatever she undertakes.

Debbie Joy Wardell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Wardell, Tonya Jo Musselman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Musselman, and Julie Backham, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn Rackham were among a group of dance students privileged to entertain with a tap dance review, presented by the Peggy Halley Dance Studio of Grove City. The group were honored to be asked to appear at the Ohio State Fair on Sunday afternoon.

On Sunday, Aug. 30, Mrs. Jennie Rowland celebrated her birthday with a dinner at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rowland with 11 relatives and friends present. Then later, Mr. Randall McKenzie came and spent the afternoon with them. Jennie's birthday was August 27.

Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sweet were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown and son Robbie of Ashville.

Betsy Bayes daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bayes of Route 1, Orient, received the Associate in Arts degree on June 15 from Mt. Vernon College (Nazarene College) in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, where she is a member of the first graduating class of this new college of liberal arts and sciences.

Farmers Getting Lower Prices For Products

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says prices received by farmers for raw products dropped 3 per cent in the July 15-Aug. 15 period, marking the largest 30-day decline since October, 1948.

The crop reporting board said Monday that lower prices for hogs, cattle, potatoes and pigs contributed most to the decrease. Higher prices for milk, lettuce and wheat partially offset the loss.

The over-all August index for prices paid farmers was put at 276 per cent of the 1910-14 base period, compared with 285 per cent a month earlier and the five-year high of 290 last February.

The board noted that the report did not reflect the sharp grain market fluctuations the past two weeks caused by reports of 1970 corn losses because of the Southern leaf blight.

Adderley In Grid Shuffle

By ED SCHUYLER JR. Associated Press Sports Writer The Pro Bowl figured in Herb Adderley's troubles with the Green Bay Packers. Now it figures in his plans with the Dallas Cowboys. Tuesday, the Cowboys sent center Malcolm Walker and defensive end Clarence Williams to Green Bay for Adderley who had refused to report to the Packers. After last season, Adderley, a star cornerback, accused Coach Phil Bengtson and his staff of keeping him off the Pro Bowl team. "I'm very grateful to Coach Bengtson for giving me the opportunity to play in another Super Bowl game," Adderley, who will be starting his 10th National Football League season, "figured I'd wind up with a second division club. But with the Cowboys, I feel we have just as good a chance to go all the way as anybody."

KC Hurler Four-Hits Sagging Angels, 4-0

By HAL BOCK Associated Press Sports Writer Eleven months ago today, Wally Bunker won a ball game. Tuesday night, the Kansas City right-hander won another. In between, there was plenty of aggravation, a scarcity of satisfaction and a great, big zero in Bunker's games won column—exactly the diet he fed California's frustrated Angels Tuesday night. Bunker hurled a four-hitter for his first victory of the year, shutting out California 4-0. The loss, combined with Minnesota's 4-0, 7-1 sweep over Milwaukee, cost the Angels 1 1/2 games and dropped them 4 1/2 back in the American League's West Division race. Elsewhere in the American League Tuesday night, New York trimmed Baltimore 4-2, leaders out of their untimely skid. The diminutive Alou, a slashing, line-drive hitter who packs 160 pounds on his 5-foot-9 frame, lashed his first homer of the year Tuesday night—a two-run blast in the sixth inning—which snapped a 1-1 tie, and Willie Stargell followed with another clutch with a man on, sending the Pirates to an 8-4 triumph over Montreal. The Pirates, who had lost six straight, maintained their 1 1/2-game National League East edge over the New York Mets, who went 12 innings before subduing St. Louis 4-3. The Chicago Cubs dropped to third place, two games back, after absorbing a 3-2 defeat in 13 innings at the hands of the red-hot Philadelphia Phillies. In other NL games, San Francisco stopped Cincinnati 5-3, Los Angeles swept a pair from Atlanta, 6-3, 3-2 and San Diego nipped Houston 2-1 in 10 innings. Bob Veale, 8-14, hurled six hitless innings before Bob Bailey homered in the seventh for the Expos. Montreal tagged the left-hander for two more runs, knocking Veale out but John Lamb halted the rally and the Pirates finally had a victory. Alou, a .312 career hitter, lifted his average to .296, adding a pair of singles. The homer was his first in 1,041 at bats. His last coming on June 4 of last year. Cleon Jones socked a sacrifice fly in the 12th inning, scoring Wayne Garrett, who opened the inning with his fourth hit off Cardinals' loser Bob Gibson, who was gunning for his 20th victory. "That was a real big one for us," said Mets' skipper Gil Hodges. "An awful big one. We needed to win one like this." The Mets had lost six of their last eight games. Gibson, winding up with his sixth loss, gave up 11 hits, the last to Garrett in the 11th. The Mets' third baseman then stole second and went to third on shortstop Milt Ramirez' error before Jones' winning fly ball. Each team scored in the 11th, the Mets on Ed Kranepool's pinch single—his first hit since April 24—and the Cards on Ted Simmons' two-out single. The fourth-place Cards dropped seven games behind Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh and New Orleans also figured in a trade, the Steelers sending veteran running back Earl Gros to New Orleans for an undisclosed draft choice. Gros is an eight-year NFL veteran. Among veterans waived were running back Perry Lee Dunn, by the Baltimore Colts, and running back Chuck Mercein, by the Washington Redskins.

'Bo' Says Michigan Team 'Has Incentive To Win'

By LARRY PALADINO Associated Press Sports Writer ANN ARBOR (AP) — Coach Bo Schembechler says Michigan's football team has "the incentive to win" the Big Ten championship—even though the Wolverines can't go to the Rose Bowl this season. But more than incentive they have: 1. one of the finest defenses in the country; 2. one of the better quarterbacks in the country; 3. one of the best running combinations in the country; and 4. one of the best coaches in the country. "Teams who have incentive and talent are going to win," reasoned the 1969 Coach of the Year at a recent press luncheon. "Those who don't, won't. It's as simple as that." "As far as I'm concerned the important thing is the Big Ten championship—whether we go to a bowl game or not," he added. UM's incentive will be sole possession of the conference title, something it shared last year with Ohio State via a stunning 24-12 upset of the Buckeyes in the final game of the season. The victory brought the Wolverines to the Rose Bowl which they lost 10-3 to Southern Cal only hours after Schembechler was hospitalized with a heart attack. "I'm in the best shape I've been in since I became a head coach, mentally, physically—and socially," smiled the former Miami of Ohio head coach as he flexed his left bicep. Bo, who was 220-pounds in Pasadena but is 180 now, said he doesn't expect the pressure of the new season to affect his health. Seventeen lettermen, including six starters, return to the offense and 16 lettermen, including eight starters, to the defense where Michigan's strength predominantly lies this year. "It is well stacked and we could probably sustain an injury or two and still come out all right," he said. Offensively, senior quarterback Don Moorhead will be the key. The 6-foot-3, 138-pounder, who is co-captain, passed for 1,261 yards and five touchdowns last year. Running from the option-T formation he added 625 yards on the ground and scored four times. Billy Taylor and Glenn Doughty divided running chores from the tailback spot last year as sophomores and led the team with 864 and 732 yards rushing respectively. Schembechler will use Doughty, who has recovered from a knee operation, at tailback with Taylor at fullback in place of graduated blocking ace Garvie Crow. "Because Crow is gone we'll go with more finesse-type run-the-fullback more, but when we want blocking we'll use Fritz Severtch." Biggest problem will be in the offensive line where the starting guards have departed. Lettermen return to six of seven line spots but there is no depth. Dan Dierdorf is a shoe-in All-American at offensive tackle but Bo will find difficulty replacing departed All-American Jim Mandich at tight end.

Nov. 21 Date May Come As Fitting Finale

By JERRY LISKA Associated Press Sports Writer Deflated Ohio State powerhouse has a date to remember with Michigan Nov. 21 and Notre Dame's now bowl-conscious Fighting Irish face big pressure on the Midwest college football front. Big Ten rivals—and co-champion Michigan especially—may find Woody Hayes and his Ohio State Buckeyes in a vindictive 1970 mood after Michigan last Nov. 22 punctured nearly two seasons of Buckeye invincibility. That 24-12 upset at Ann Arbor, Mich., cost Hayes' squad of super juniors a second straight mythical national title and another undisputed Big Ten crown. Hayes still has 13 two-season veterans, headed by magical quarterback Rex Kern, who unquestionably will be pointing all season for Michigan's invasion of Ohio State's 82,000-capacity Stadium in a traditional finale Nov. 21. This time, Ohio State—extolled as one of college football's all-time great aggregations until Michigan snapped the Buckeyes' 22-game winning streak—is eligible for a Rose Bowl appearance. Notre Dame's Ara Parseghian, who has a remarkable six-season record of 48-9-4, is studiously avoiding any talk of whether the Irish will go bowling a second straight year, now that the school dropped its rigid anti-bowl policy. The Irish must replace five offensive regulars and four defensive starters, including massive tackle Mike McCoy and line-backer Bob Olson. Additionally, Notre Dame's schedule stiffens considerably this year. Defensively, the Irish should be strong, hubbed around slick safety Clarence Ellis, line-backer Tim Kelly and McCoy's likely front line successor, 6-5, 245-pound Greg Marx, whose sophomore year was winned out by injury. If Parseghian can remodel his offensive line, the Irish attack still could bristle with veteran quarterback Joe Theismann and Cotton Bowl backs Denny Allan, Andy Huff and Bill Barz, plus ace receiver Tom Gatewood, a sharp nucleus. In the Big Ten, unveiling new head coaches Bob DeMoss at (Continued on Page 17)

Short Fired In Chisox Shuffle

CHICAGO AP — "Somebody has to take the rap." With that explanation, Ed Short bowed out Tuesday as the Chicago White Sox' vice president in charge of player personnel. Short, who has been with the White Sox since 1950 and has served as public relations director, traveling secretary and general manager, will be replaced by Stu Holcomb. Holcomb, a former football coach at Purdue and athletic director at Northwestern, will become executive vice president and assume full responsibility for the entire White Sox operation.

Reds Recall Indy Players

CINCINNATI (AP) — Right-hand pitcher Milt Wilcox, infielder Frank Duffy and catcher Bill Plummer, called up Tuesday from the Indianapolis Indian farm team, will report for duty with the Cincinnati Reds Thursday. They complete the season with their American Association club today. The addition of Plummer will give the Reds some catching insurance for the last month of the season. They have gone all season with Johnny Bench and Pat Corrales and in a recent game had to use utility man Jim Stewart as a catcher. Wilcox has had a 12-10 record with Indianapolis and a 2.94 earned run average. Duffy hit .262.

Meet The Tigers

TURIN, Italy (AP) — Track and field gets under way today in the sixth University Games—but the question is whether they'll get under way for everyone. Politics seems to have become a major event with Israeli, Arab and Portuguese athletes the primary participants. Members of the Arab teams have refused to face Israel or Portugal in several individual events, such as fencing, but the major question was whether similar incidents would arise in track and field, where there are no direct confrontations. The United States is expected to grab most of the track and field titles. U.S. athletes have already picked up 19 gold medals here. The Soviet Union notched its ninth gold Tuesday, defeating Romania 9-3 in the women's team foil finals. The Russians also appear likely to pick up medals in men's and women's volleyball and men's tennis, gymnastics and basketball. But the undefeated Soviet basketball team will get a strong challenge from the United States, also unbeaten, which moved into the round-robin finals Tuesday with a 95-56 crushing of Italy.

Giants Win, 5-3

The Circleville Herald, Wed. Sept. 2, 1970

Slumping Cincy Worries Sparky

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds, still out front in the National League Western mark since the All Star break Tuesday night and Manager Sparky Anderson was worried. The Giants, on a pinch-hit double by John Stephenson scored two in the eighth inning giving them a 5-3 decision. The defeat was the ninth in the last 13 for the Reds who now are 24-24 since the mid-season break. "Right now we're playing terrible," said Red Manager Sparky Anderson. "We better play better ball or we won't be there next month. We're simply not coming through with the important hits. No manager ever puts runs on the board. It's up to those guys in the other room," he said nodding through his office door to the quiet Reds dressing room. "But I'm pressing no panic button," Anderson said. "Jim Maloney will be back in three or four days and I think he'll give us a shot in the arm." Maloney has been out of action since early April with an injured ankle. Stephenson's game-winning hit was only his third of the season in 31 trips to the plate. Those three hits, all pinch hits, have brought in six runs. "I just hit the ball pretty good," Stephenson said. Giant pitcher Gaylord Perry, recording his 18th win, said he was slightly tired "but I could have gone a few more innings." Perry, who has pitched 2,712 2/3 innings, tops in the league, stifled a seventh inning rally after the Reds tied it 3-3 with two runs, by striking out John Bench and Lee May. "I used off speed pitches," he said, "because they were hitting my fast ball." Jim Ray Hart had a two-run double and Bobby Bonds a homer for the Giants before Stephenson put them ahead. Gary Nolan (15-5) will face Juan Marichal (9-9) tonight. The Giants are ahead 7-6 with the Reds on the season.

Tires Problem In Cal-500

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Tire wear became a new concern today for some drivers entered in the Sept. 6 California 500 championship race at Ontario Motor Speedway. The concern was among drivers who are committed to use Goodyear tires in the $750,000 inaugural. Several of them reported their tires, built especially for this race, were blistering at high speed both in earlier practice and in carburetion runs Tuesday. A Goodyear spokesman admitted that "backup" tires are being flown into Ontario for possible use in the race, expected to be the fastest ever run. "The fastest we had gone during 2,000 miles of tire testing at Ontario was one lap at 174 miles per hour," the spokesman said. "Then our drivers got here and started turning laps at 177 and 178 m.p.h., making it a whole new ball game." Four cars had troubles with their rubber over the weekend, including Dan Gurney who qualified his Eagle-Offy in the middle of the first row of 33 starters. Gurney's average speed for four laps was 176.401 m.p.h. Others were Roger McCluskey, Mark Donohue and LeRoy Yarborough, the latter in the Jack Brabham turbocharged Offy that is believed to have the best chassis for tires in the race. East Carolina University this season plays its first five football games under floodlights. The Pirates wind up playing Davidson in a day game at Norfolk, Va., Nov. 28.

MacFadden Fires 33 In PCC Action

A blistering three under par low gross 33 by Dean MacFadden and a low net 33 by Frank Estes featured action in the Pickaway Country Club's Mens League Tuesday. The winning team was No. 4 with 15 1/2 points. Team members are Dean MacFadden, Rudy Chelkowsky, Lyle Bookman, Dick Williams, Bob Parker, Dave Crawford and Joe Smith. The team standings are Team No. 2 with 108 1/2 points, Team No. 10 with 105 1/2 points and Team No. 4 with 104 points.

The Pirates, who had lost six straight, maintained their 1 1/2-game National League East edge over the New York Mets, who went 12 innings before subduing St. Louis 4-3.
The Chicago Cubs dropped to third place, two games back, after absorbing a 3-2 defeat in 13 innings at the hands of the red-hot Philadelphia Phillies.
In other NL games, San Francisco stopped Cincinnati 5-3, Los Angeles swept a pair from Atlanta, 6-3, 3-2 and San Diego nipped Houston 2-1 in 10 innings.
Bob Veale, 8-14, hurled six hitless innings before Bob Bailey homered in the seventh for the Expos. Montreal tagged the left-hander for two more runs, knocking Veale out but John Lamb halted the rally and the Pirates finally had a victory.
Alou, a .312 career hitter, lifted his average to .296, adding a pair of singles. The homer was his first in 1,041 at bats. His last coming on June 4 of last year.
Cleon Jones socked a sacrifice fly in the 12th inning, scoring Wayne Garrett, who opened the inning with his fourth hit off Cardinals' loser Bob Gibson, who was gunning for his 20th victory.
"That was a real big one for us," said Mets' skipper Gil Hodges. "An awful big one. We needed to win one like this." The Mets had lost six of their last eight games.
Gibson, winding up with his sixth loss, gave up 11 hits, the last to Garrett in the 11th. The Mets' third baseman then stole second and went to third on shortstop Milt Ramirez' error before Jones' winning fly ball.
Each team scored in the 11th, the Mets on Ed Kranepool's pinch single—his first hit since April 24—and the Cards on Ted Simmons' two-out single. The fourth-place Cards dropped seven games behind Pittsburgh.

'Bo' Says Michigan Team 'Has Incentive To Win'

By LARRY PALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
ANN ARBOR (AP) — Coach Bo Schembechler says Michigan's football team has "the incentive to win" the Big Ten championship—even though the Wolverines can't go to the Rose Bowl this season.
But more than incentive they have: 1. one of the finest defenses in the country; 2. one of the better quarterbacks in the country; 3. one of the best running combinations in the country; and 4. one of the best coaches in the country.
"Teams who have incentive and talent are going to win," reasoned the 1969 Coach of the Year at a recent press luncheon. "Those who don't, won't. It's as simple as that."
"As far as I'm concerned the important thing is the Big Ten championship—whether we go to a bowl game or not," he added.
UM's incentive will be sole possession of the conference title, something it shared last year with Ohio State via a stunning 24-12 upset of the Buckeyes in the final game of the season.

The victory brought the Wolverines to the Rose Bowl which they lost 10-3 to Southern Cal only hours after Schembechler was hospitalized with a heart attack.
"I'm in the best shape I've been in since I became a head coach, mentally, physically—and socially," smiled the former Miami of Ohio head coach as he flexed his left bicep.
Bo, who was 220-pounds in Pasadena but is 180 now, said he doesn't expect the pressure of the new season to affect his health.
Seventeen lettermen, including six starters, return to the offense and 16 lettermen, including eight starters, to the defense where Michigan's strength predominantly lies this year.
"It is well stacked and we could probably sustain an injury or two and still come out all right," he said.
Offensively, senior quarterback Don Moorhead will be the key.
ninth. Then Milwaukee bench hits by Tito Francona, Bob Burda and Ted Kubiak to tie it. It was a momentary problem, though.
Two innings later, the Twins exploded the tie with six runs the last three on Killebrew's second homer of the night and 40th this season. The big slugger now has 106 RBI.
Roy White and Bobby Murcer rocketed home runs, propelling New York past Baltimore. Fritz Peterson got ninth-inning help from Lindy McDaniel to nail down his 16th victory of the season. Jim Hardin, 4-5, took the loss.
Detroit wiped out a seven-run Boston lead and overtook the Red Sox with Jim Price's grand slam home keying the comeback. Norm Cash, Jim Northrup and Gates Brown also connected

Nov. 21 Date May Come As Fitting Finale

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
Deflated Ohio State powerhouse has a date to remember with Michigan Nov. 21 and Notre Dame's now bowl-conscious Fighting Irish face big pressure on the Midwest college football front.
Big Ten rivals—and co-champion Michigan especially—may find Woody Hayes and his Ohio State Buckeyes in a vindictive 1970 mood after Michigan last Nov. 22 punctured nearly two seasons of Buckeye invincibility.
That 24-12 upset at Ann Arbor, Mich., cost Hayes' squad of super juniors a second straight mythical national title and another undisputed Big Ten crown.
Hayes still has 13 two-season veterans, headed by magical quarterback Rex Kern, who unquestionably will be pointing all season for Michigan's invasion of Ohio State's 82,000-capacity Stadium in a traditional finale Nov. 21.
This time, Ohio State—exalted as one of college football's all-time great aggregations until Michigan snapped the Buckeyes' 22-game winning streak—is eligible for a Rose Bowl appearance.
Notre Dame's Ara Parseghian, who has a remarkable six-season record of 48-9-4, is studiously avoiding any talk of whether the Irish will go bowling a second straight year, now that the school dropped its rigid anti-bowl policy.
The Irish must replace five offensive regulars and four defensive starters, including massive tackle Mike McCoy and linebacker Bob Olson. Additionally, Notre Dame's schedule stiffens considerably this year.
Defensively, the Irish should be strong, huddled around slick safety Clarence Ellis, linebacker Tim Kelly and McCoy's likely front line successor, 6-5, 245-pound Greg Marx, whose sophomore was winned out by injury.
If Parseghian can remodel his offensive line, the Irish attack still could bristle with veteran quarterback Joe Theismann and Cotton Bowl backs Denny Allan, Andy Huff and Bill Barz, plus ace receiver Tom Gatewood, a sharp nucleus.

Short Fired In Chisox Shuffle
CHICAGO AP — "Somebody has to take the rap." With that explanation, Ed Short bowed out Tuesday as the Chicago White Sox' vice president in charge of player personnel.
Short, who has been with the White Sox since 1950 and has served as public relations director, traveling secretary and general manager, will be replaced by Stu Holcomb.
Holcomb, a former football coach at Purdue and athletic director at Northwestern, will become executive vice president and assume full responsibility for the entire White Sox operation.

Reds Recall Indy Players

CINCINNATI (AP) — Right-hand pitcher Milt Wilcox, infielder Frank Duffy and catcher Bill Plummer, called up Tuesday from the Indianapolis Indian farm team, will report for duty with the Cincinnati Reds Thursday.
They complete the season with their American Association club today.
The addition of Plummer will give the Reds some catching insurance for the last month of the season. They have gone all season with Johnny Bench and Pat Corrales and in a recent game had to use utility man Jim Stewart as a catcher.
Wilcox has had a 12-10 record with Indianapolis and a 2.94 earned run average. Duffy hit .262.

MacFadden Fires 33 In PCC Action

A blistering three under par low gross 33 by Dean MacFadden and a low net 33 by Frank Estes featured action in the Pickaway Country Club's Mens League Tuesday.

The winning team was No. 4 with 15 1/2 points. Team members are Dean MacFadden, Rudy Chelickowsky, Lyle Bookman, Dick Williams, Bob Parker, Dave Crawford and Joe Smith.

The team standings are Team No. 2 with 108 1/2 points, Team No. 10 with 105 1/2 points and Team No. 4 with 104 points.

Frank Beard Donates Money

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Frank Beard of Louisville, the leading money-winner on the Professional Golfers Association tour last year, got $1,000 for playing in the Kentucky Thoroughbred golf tournament this spring, as did other PGA members.

But Beard donated his share to Louisville General Hospital, for which the tournament was held to raise construction money.

Giants Win, 5-3

The Giants, on a pinch-hit double by John Stephenson scored two in the eighth inning giving them a 5-3 decision. The defeat was the ninth in the last 13 for the Reds who now are 24-24 since the mid-season break.

Tires Problem In Cal-500

ONTARIO, Calif. (AP) — Tire wear became a new concern today for some drivers entered in the Sept. 6 California 500 championship race at Ontario Motor Speedway.

The concern was among drivers who are committed to use Goodyear tires in the $750,000 inaugural. Several of them reported their tires, built especially for this race, were blistering at high speed-both in earlier practice and in carburetion runs Tuesday.

A Goodyear spokesman admitted that "backup" tires are being flown into Ontario for possible use in the race, expected to be the fastest ever run.

"The fastest we had gone during 2,000 miles of tire testing at Ontario was one lap at 174 miles per hour," the spokesman said. "Then our drivers got here and started turning laps at 177 and 178 m.p.h., making it a whole new ball game."

Four cars had troubles with their rubber over the weekend, including Dan Gurney who qualified his Eagle-Offy in the middle of the first row of 33 starters. Gurney's average speed for four laps was 176.401 m.p.h.

Others were Roger McCluskey, Mark Donohue and LeRoy Yarborough, the latter in the Jack Brabham turbocharged Offy that is believed to have the best chassis for tires in the race.

East Carolina University this season plays its first five football games under floodlights. The Pirates wind up playing Davidson in a day game at Norfolk, Va., Nov. 28.

U.S. Leading Russia, 19-9

TURIN, Italy (AP) — Track and field gets under way today in the sixth University Games—but the question is whether they'll get under way for everyone.

Politics seems to have become a major event with Israel, Arab and Portuguese athletes the primary participants.

Members of the Arab teams have refused to face Israel or Portugal in several individual events, such as fencing, but the major question was whether similar incidents would arise in track and field, where there are no direct confrontations.

The United States is expected to grab most of the track and field titles. U.S. athletes have already picked up 19 gold medals here.

The Soviet Union notched its ninth gold Tuesday, defeating Romania 9-3 in the women's team foil finals. The Russians also appear likely to pick up golds in men's and women's volleyball and men's tennis, gymnastics and basketball.

But the undefeated Soviet basketball team will get a strong challenge from the United States, also unbeaten, which moved into the round-robin finals Tuesday with a 95-56 crushing of Italy.

PCC Sets Club Golf Finals

Pickaway Country Club will hold the men's club championships over the Labor Day weekend.

Bob Parker and John Evans will meet in the third flight finals.

The second flight finals will match Wayne Evans and Lee Cook.

Ron Kazmierczak and Bill Shanning will battle for the honors in the first flight finals.

The 36-hole championship flight will be held Labor Day with defending champion Steve Helwagen meeting Dean MacFadden.

Texans Seek Encore With Quarterback Replacement

Meet The Braves

John Weaver (25), halfback, and Steve Curtis (44), halfback, are senior members of the Logan Elm football team. Weaver is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Weaver, Route 4, and Curtis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Curtis, Logan Elm Village.

Nov. 21 Date

Purdue and John Jardine at Wisconsin, a preseason poll of mentors confirmed the obvious—the championship scrap looms between Ohio State and Michigan.

A formidable challenger, however, could come from among Purdue, Minnesota and Michigan State. Indiana and Iowa rate in the middle of the pack and Illinois, Northwestern and Wisconsin again are question marks.

Ohio State's Buckeyes have, besides the clever Kern, two All-Americans—corner back Jack Tatum and middle guard Jim Stillwagon—and 28 other lettermen. Workhorse fullback Jim Otis is gone and Hayes must rebuild the middle of the offensive and defensive lines.

Michigan Coach Bo Schembechler still has the quarterback Don Moorehead, who outmaneuvered Kern in Michigan's upset of Ohio State.

The Wolverines return eight defensive starters, headed by rugged end Phil Seymour, and have among six holdover offensive starters such standouts as running backs Bill Taylor and Glenn Doughty and tackles Dan Dierdorf and Jack Harping.

At Purdue, DeMoss supplants retired Jack Mollenkopf needing to find a quarterback replacement for Mike Phipps, who rewrote the Boilermaking passing record book for three seasons.

The choice must come from among no fewer than five candidates, led by senior Jeff Jones or sophomore Gary Danielson. Star receivers Ashley Bell and Stan Brown and linebacksers Veno Paraskevas and Jim Teal are kingpins for Purdue which must face Notre Dame, Stanford, Michigan and Ohio State. The Boilermakers lost 13 starters from last year.

Minnesota, traditionally a November toughie under Murray Warmath, also lacks an experienced quarterback with Craig Curry the best bet. Still the Gophers return 15 starters, headed by power running Barry Mayer and Ernie Cook and defensive back Jeff Wright.

Duffy Daugherty's Michigan State team lost 12 starters from last year's disappointing 4-6 club and runs into successive Saturdays against Notre Dame, Ohio State and Michigan. With Bill Triplett shifted to running back, Spartan quarterbacking will be handled by soph George Mihajic or Mike Rasmussen. Tackle Ron Curl bulwarks a good defense, but the offensive line has only one regular back.

Coach Alex Agase at Northwestern has his most experienced club in seven seasons with seven starters each on offense and defense. The Wildcats attack hinges heavily on quarterback Maurice Daigneau and fullback Mike Adame.

Indiana's Cinderella trio of quarterback Harry Gonso, halfback John Isenbarger and flanker Jade Butcher has gone, but Coach Johnny Pont still has 12 holdover starters, a strong defense and promising soph quarterbacks in Ted McNulty and Dan Grossman.

At Iowa, Coach Ray Nagle outlasted Athletic Director Forrest Evashevski in a front office showdown, but the Hawkeyes also had star quarterback Larry Lawrence defect to Miami of Florida. Replacing Lawrence will be Roy Bash in a seasoned backfield. This may be Nagle's best defensive club.

Jardine, replacing John Coatta at Wisconsin, could rally the Badgers behind Alan Thompson and quarterback spark by Neil Graff despite over-all lack of depth.

Illinois, winless last year at 0-10, finds Jim Valek, in his fourth season, still trying to rebuild after the Illini slush fund scandal of 1966.

In the Mid-American Conference, quarterbacking will be the name of the game. Defending champion Toledo has Chuck Ealey, who directed the Rockets to a 10-0 over-all record last season. Conference runnerup Bowling Green also has a veteran slinger, Vern Wireman, who set 10 school passing records as the Falcons posted a 4-1 league mark.

Miami of Ohio, finishing third under new coach Bill Mallory last year, has a sharp passing tandem in quarterback Jim Bengala and Mike Palija. Other veteran Mid-American quarterbacks include Steve Skiver at Ohio University; Ted Bowersox at Kent State, and Ted Grignon at Western Michigan.

Midwestern independent's hoping to improve losing 1969 records include Marshall (3-7), Northern Illinois (3-7), Dayton (3-7), and Xavier (1-9).

National champion Texas tries for an encore this year without a weak-armed quarterback who guided the Longhorns to 20 consecutive victories on a steady diet of converting 4th- and two situations.

James Street's the name and clutch play was his game. He rallied the Longhorns from 14-0 deficits to Oklahoma and Arkansas and 10-0 to Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl.

The fiery unbeaten leader of the burnt orange has completed his eligibility and turned the controls over to Eddie Phillips, who has tremendous ability but is unproven in a pressure cooker.

Coach Darrell Royal is confident Phillips can handle the job. Royal says "Phillips' mechanics and execution are just as good as Street's and he's a good runner. All he needs is to win. Confidence is the thing that helps any quarterback and it comes only from winning."

In fact, the secondary worries Royal more than the quarterbacking.

"We are extremely thin back there," he says.

The loss of junior Freddie Steinmark, who lost his left leg in a cancer operation Dec. 12, left only Danny Lester and Rick Nabors as experienced defensive backs.

"I don't know what we'd do if they got hurt," Royal says.

Texas has All-America quality folks in fullback Steve Worster, halfback Jim Bertelsen, split end Cotton Speyer, offensive tackle Bobby Wunsch, defensive end Bill Atessis and linebacksers Scott Henderson and Bill Zapalac.

While Texas is the favorite to win the Southwest Conference championship and perhaps another national title, the Arkansas Razorbacks loom as a prime roadblock.

The combination of quarterback Bill Montgomery to wide receiver Chuck Dicus is one of the most feared pass-and-run combinations in the land. Bill Burnett adds a potent force at tailback.

Coach Frank Broyles is mostly worried about his green, inexperienced but huge offensive line.

"The offensive line replacements are going to have to get good all of a sudden," says Broyles. "Offensive linemen don't look good until they gain some confidence. The offensive line requires more learning than any other phase of our game."

And Broyles adds, "They have the physical talents, if they can gain the confidence."

The remainder of the SWC is still a good step behind Arkansas and Texas in over-all depth, but each club except perhaps Baylor boasts some individuals who could dish out some upset poison on a given Saturday.

Good quarterbacks are plentiful in the SWC. There's Chuck Hixson at Southern Methodist, who needs only 10 completions to break the all-time NCAA record; Charles Napper of Texas Tech and Steve Judy at Texas Christian.

Hixson is a remarkable athlete who has completed 482 of 830 pass attempts for 3,416 yards and 30 touchdowns in SMU's "30-yards and a whirl-of-wind" offense.

Coach Hayden Fry says "Hixson's got probably the quickest release in collegiate football. And he can think. He checked off at the line of scrimmage for 12 touchdown passes his sophomore year."

Broyles says flatly "He's the greatest college passer I've ever seen."

Royal adds: "His greatest asset is that when a receiver pops open, he can hit him in a New York second."

Texas A&M, under coach Gene Stallings, has a talented group of sophomores and juniors headed by quarterback Lex James and running back Brad Ousek but the Aggies play a killer road schedule—Louisiana State, Ohio State and Michigan.

Texas Tech's Red Raiders have a new coach—energetic Jim Carlen—and should be most troublesome particularly with the gifted Napper as the man under.

TCU is big and brawny and Judy can make coach Fred Taylor's offense hum but the Horned Frogs are lacking in team speed, something which always seems to keep them a step away from the SWC crown.

Rice has the most lettermen back in the SWC. Coach Bo Hagan concedes this is his most talented squad and with a few good bounces the Owls could jump into the SWC first division.

Baylor is winless under Coach Bill Beall and the Bears have neither the depth, speed or brawn to compete. Punter Ed Marsh, the NCAA leader last year, is the only player worth writing home about.

The SWC has been the scene of some wild, wild upsets but it would really take a stunner to keep Texas and Arkansas from their "Big Shootout" No. 2 on Dec. 5 in Austin with unblemished records.

Houston is the best of the independents in the Southwest with receiver Elmo Wright one of the finest in the nation. Cougar coach Bill Yoeman has quarterback problems since undefeated signal caller Gary Mullins will not be able to play this year because of injury. Houston should be tough on defense and still have plenty of offensive firepower.

Clay To Box In Exhibition

ATLANTA (AP) — Former heavyweight champion Cassius Clay says he is eager to find out what a three-year layoff has done to, his speed and timing in the ring, and he hopes a series of exhibition matches here tonight will show him.

"I'm just as anxious as anybody else to see what I can do," Clay said Tuesday night.

"I think this will tell me just how off I am."

Clay, who prefers his Black Muslim name of Muhammad Ali, will fight a series of exhibitions tonight at the Morehouse College gym at Atlanta University.

He originally was scheduled to meet Rufe Brassel of Lima, Ohio, and Johnny Hudgins of Miami, Fla., in two four-round matches.

The deposed champion said Tuesday night, however, that he probably will box Brassel and Hudgins for two rounds each and take on another sparring partner, George Hill, for the final four rounds.

The Yankee Girl Wins At Scioto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Yankee Girl moved up from fourth to win the $1,500 feature race at Scioto Downs Tuesday night by seven lengths in 2:05 4-5. She paid $5.40, $3.80 and $3.

Tartan Star placed for $20.60 and $11.20 and Master Roadrunner returned $6.40 to show. The 4-8 double of Het Direct and Best Reporter paid $127.80 and a 2-9 quinella returned $67.80. A crowd of 7,227 wagered $268,455.

Syracuse Chiefs Win IL Baseball Title

The Syracuse Chiefs broke a five-game losing streak Tuesday night with a 3-2 victory over Rochester and in the process won their first International League pennant since 1897.

A two-run double in the sixth inning by George Pena and a solid relief performance by Hal Reniff was enough to pop the post-game champagne corks.

In other Tuesday night action, Richmond thumped Tidewater, 7-4, Winnipeg blanked Toledo 2-0 and Louisville edged Columbus 8-7.

QB Problem Still Plagues Cincy Bengals

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — The Cincinnati Bengals in their quest to replace Greg Cook are looking for their 11th quarterback.

Kay Stephenson, a one-time Florida State star, reported to the National Football League team's camp quarters Tuesday and was assigned to the taxi squad.

Cook, the 1969 rookie-of-the-year in the American Football League, was out for the season after undergoing shoulder surgery. Backup man Sam Wyche oversaw the Bengal's defeat of the Cleveland Browns in an exhibition game 31-24 Saturday night.

Dave Lewis, quarterback punter, is the team's other hope.

Stephenson was picked up on waivers from the Oakland Raiders. He started with the San Diego Chargers and then moved to Buffalo.

Stephenson's arrival heralded the end of Jim Del Gaizo, the rookie from Tampa, who was waived Tuesday.

Paul Brown, coach and general manager, said he expects to give quarterbacks Bob Davis and Virgil Davis a chance in the exhibition Saturday against the Green Bay Packers at Milwaukee.

Fred Foster Signs Contract With Royals

CINCINNATI (AP) — Fred Foster, today signed his 1970-71 contract with the Cincinnati Royals of the National Basketball Association, the team announced, but the terms were not disclosed.

The team now has four veteran players unsigned. They are Connie Dierking, Johnny Green, Flynn Robinson and Bill Turner.

The deposed champion said Tuesday night, however, that he probably will box Brassel and Hudgins for two rounds each and take on another sparring partner, George Hill, for the final four rounds.

The Yankee Girl Wins At Scioto

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Yankee Girl moved up from fourth to win the $1,500 feature pace at Scioto Downs Tuesday night by seven lengths in 2:05 4-5. She paid $5.40, $3.80 and $3.

Tartan Star placed for $20.60 and $11.20 and Master Roadrunner returned $6.40 to show. The 4-8 double of Het Direct and Best Reporter paid $127.80 and a 2-9 quinella returned $67.80. A crowd of 7,227 wagered $268,455.

Syracuse Chiefs Win IL Baseball Title

The Syracuse Chiefs broke a five-game losing streak Tuesday night with a 3-2 victory over Rochester and in the process won their first International League pennant since 1897.

A two-run double in the sixth inning by George Pena and a solid relief performance by Hal Reniff was enough to pop the post-game champagne corks.

In other Tuesday night action, Richmond thumped Tidewater, 7-4, Winnipeg blanked Toledo 2-0 and Louisville edged Columbus 8-7.

Texans Seek Encore With Quarterback Replacement

By DENNE FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

National champion Texas tries for an encore this year without a weak-armed quarterback who guided the Longhorns to 20 consecutive victories on a steady diet of converting 4th- and two situations.

James Street's the name and clutch play was his game. He rallied the Longhorns from 14-0 deficits to Oklahoma and Arkansas and 10-0 to Notre Dame in the Cotton Bowl.

The fiery unbeaten leader of the burnt orange has completed his eligibility and turned the controls over to Eddie Phillips, who has tremendous ability but is unproven in a pressure cooker.

Coach Darrell Royal is confident Phillips can handle the job.

Royal says "Phillips' mechanics and execution are just as good as Street's and he's a good runner. All he needs is to win. Confidence is the thing that helps any quarterback and it comes only from winning."

In fact, the secondary worries Royal more than the quarterbacking.

"We are extremely thin back there," he says.

The loss of junior Freddie Steinmark, who lost his left leg in a cancer operation Dec. 12, left only Danny Lester and Rick Nabors as experienced defensive backs.

"I don't know what we'd do if they got hurt," Royal says. Texas has All-America quality folks in fullback Steve Worster, halfback Jim Bertelsen, split end Cotton Speyrer, offensive tackle Bobby Wuensch, defensive end Bill Ateiss and linebackers Scott Henderson and Bill Zapala.

White Texas is the favorite to win the Southwest Conference championship and perhaps another national title, the Arkansas Razorbacks loom as a prime roadblock.

The combination of quarterback Bill Montgomery to wide receiver Chuck Dieus is one of the most feared pass-and-run combinations in the land, Bill Burnett adds a potent force at tailback.

Coach Frank Broyles is mostly worried about his green, inexperienced but huge offensive line.

"The offensive line replacements are going to have to get good all of a sudden," says Broyles. "Offensive linemen don't look good until they gain some confidence. The offensive line requires more learning than any other phase of our game."

And Broyles adds, "They have the physical talents, if they can gain the confidence."

The remainder of the SWC is still a good step behind Arkansas and Texas in over-all depth, but each club except perhaps Baylor boasts some individuals who could dish out some upset poison on a given Saturday.

Good quarterbacks are plentiful in the SWC. There's Chuck Hixon at Southern Methodist, who needs only 10 completions to break the all-time NCAA record; Charles Napper of Texas Tech and Steve Judy at Texas Christian.

Hixon is a remarkable athlete who has completed 482 of 830 pass attempts for 5,416 yards and 30 touchdowns in SMU's "30-yards and a whirl-of-wind" offense.

Coach Hayden Fry says "Hixon's got probably the quickest release in collegiate football. And he can think. He checked off at the line of scrimmage for 12 touchdown passes his sophomore year."

Broyles says flatly "He's the greatest college passer I've ever seen."

Royal adds: "His greatest asset is that when a receiver pops open, he can hit him in a New York second."

Texas A&M, under coach Gene Stallings, has a talented group of sophomores and juniors headed by quarterback Lex James and running back Brad Dusek but the Aggies play a killer road schedule—Louisiana State, Ohio State and Michigan.

Texas Tech's Red Raiders have a new coach—energetic Jim Carlen—and should be most troublesome particularly with the gifted Napper as the man under.

TCU is big and brawny and Judy can make coach Fred Taylor's offense hum but the Horned Frogs are lacking in team speed, something which always seems to keep them a step away from the SWC crown.

Rice has the most lettermen back in the SWC. Coach Bo Hagan concedes this is his most talented squad and with a few good bounces the Owls could jump into the SWC first division.

Baylor is winless under Coach Bill Beall and the Bears have neither the depth, speed or brawn to compete. Punter Ed Marsh, the NCAA leader last year, is the only player worth writing home about.

The SWC has been the scene of some wild, wild upsets but it would really take a stunner to keep Texas and Arkansas from their "Big Shootout" No. 2 on Dec. 5 in Austin with unblemished records.

Houston is the best of the independents in the Southwest with receiver Elmo Wright one of the finest in the nation. Cougar coach Bill Yoeman has quarterback problems since undefeated signal caller Gary Mullins will not be able to play this year because of injury. Houston should be tough on defense and still have plenty of offensive firepower.

Memorial Day Set In 1851

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Memorial Day, celebrated on May 30 in all but a few Southern states, was the idea of an 1851 law graduate of the University of Louisville.
John A. Logan, a former Union Civil War general serving as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued General Orders No. 11 dated May 5, 1868.

The order read in part: "The 30th day of May, 1868, is designed for the purpose of strewing flowers and otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in defense of their country during the late rebellion."

Browns Prep For Battle With Vikings

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Browns Coach Fritz Heisler has remained unconcerned about his offensive line despite its failure to protect quarterback Bill Nelsen several times during last Saturday's exhibition game loss to Cincinnati.

Heisler, who is preparing his unit for Saturday's meeting with defending National Football League champion Minnesota, said, "There were some breakdowns in Cincinnati but all of it can't be blamed on any one group."

"Some of our new men were picked on occasionally," said Heisler, a coach with the Browns in all 25 years of the club's existence.

"It's tough to replace a man like (retired tackle) Monte Clark," Heisler said. "He had the know-how and the moxie. I'm confident though, Joe Taffoni will do a satisfactory job."

Taffoni, beginning his fourth year with the Browns, is teaming with veteran tackle Dick Schafrath. Guards John Del-lano and Jim Copeland, a guard who may fill in at center, appears to have a backup job guaranteed. The Browns will keep another tackle and possibly another center.

The battle at tackle is between second year performer Al Jenkins and Bob McKay, who was selected second by the Browns in this year's college draft.

"Both have been doing a pretty good job. Al has the advantage of being with us last season," Heisler said. McKay had a lot of catching up to do when he arrived after being with the College All Stars. He's been coming along much better in these past few weeks."

Other guard candidates are rookies Craig Wycinsky and Jim Langer. Chuck Reynolds is a backup center.

Divers Search For 1st Submarine

PLYMOUTH, England (AP) — Royal navy trainee divers plan a seabed search for the wreck of one of the world's first submarine disasters — in 1773.

The craft was built by a carpenter called J. Day who wagered he could spend 12 hours at a depth of 100 feet in the Plymouth sound.

Neither he nor the vessel, which should have resurfaced when ballast was jettisoned from a special false bottom, were seen again.

The divers, from the school of nautical archeology here, expect to find the submarine under a layer of silt.

U.S. Open Tennis Play Opens Today

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — It was United Nations Day today at the U.S. Open Tennis Championships which could turn into a romp for one country — Australia.

The Open began today with the first five men's seeds Australians and Australian Margaret Smith-Court favored to defend her women's singles crown.

Leading the men's division is defending champion Rod Laver, hoping to make up for his stunning elimination at Wimbledon, and he is followed in the seedings by fellow Aussies John Newcombe, the Wimbledon champion; Ken Rosewall Wimbledon runner up; Tony Roche, and Roy Emerson, winner here in 1961 and 1964.

1970 Outlook Uncertain At Missouri U

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Dan Devine, the man who has had fantastic success as coach of the University of Missouri football team, probably never started a season with more uncertainty than this one.

Devine, who in 12 years at the Tiger helm has watched his clubs lose only 31 times, knows very well that Missouri finished the 1969 season as the nation's No. 6 team. He won't say the 1970 Tigers will be that good. Neither will he say they won't. He doesn't know.

He notes with interest that Missouri has been generally established as the pre-season favorite to capture the Big Eight Conference title which the Tigers shared with Nebraska last year. He knows that if the Tigers do win the conference championship, that will likely be good enough for at least sixth place in the national rankings.

"We've always had a No. 1 guy at Missouri," Devine says. "We don't have one this year. We have problems. Right now, I couldn't name a starting line-up. We have no seasoned defensive backs. We don't know who'll play quarterback or who will do the punting or the kicking on field goals and extra points. There are probably teams in the Big Eight with fewer question marks than Missouri."

Still, deep down inside, Devine knows he has the makings of a good, sound team. How quickly it will jell is the big question. One thing is certain: Things have to progress quickly if the Tigers hope to duplicate or better last year's record of 9-2.

"Looking at the middle of our schedule," Devine says from memory, "I see that we have Nebraska, Notre Dame, Colorado, Kansas State and Oklahoma — back-to-back. So, there's nothing I can say that would be the least bit funny."

"I don't know what to expect. Certainly, we have some great players. If we can overcome the question marks, we'll have a darned good football team at Missouri."

Missouri's quarterback will be either Mike Farmer or Chuck Roper. Both are juniors. Neither owns a Tiger football letter.

"Farmer can pass better than most people think," Devine says. "Roper can run better than most people think. Both are good leaders. Whoever turns up as the best passer probably will get the job."

Six 1969 starters are back to form the backbone of Missouri's I-formation offense, including G-ray, tackle Laron Jackson, guards Dan Kelley and Mickey Kephart, center Bob Wilson and tight end John Matuszak.

Five of the defensive starters from a year ago give Devine a good nucleus. They are end Mike Bennett, tackle Steve Mizler, guard Adam Vital, linebacker Nip Weisenfels and halfback George Fountain. Also ready is senior tackle Rocky Wallace, an All-Big Eight performer in 1968, who saw little action last season because of a pulled hamstring muscle.

Missouri's best player from the sophomore ranks is Jack Bastable, a halfback, who possibly will get the kicking assignment. He was the freshman team's leading rusher until he was injured last fall.

Other sophomores who undoubtedly will see a lot of action are halfback Mike Fink, regarded by Devine as a good prospect for either offense or defense; center Scott Sodergren, offensive tackle Chris Kirley, defensive guard Pete Ramirez and tight end John Matuszak.

Cecil Travis, 56, runnerup to Ted Williams (401 to 359) for the 1941 American League batting title has a 250-acre farm in Riverdale, Ga., where he was born. Travis formerly played shortstop and third base for the Washington Senators, the team Williams manages.

McGovern Says Viet War Now Belongs To President

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate vote against the end-the-war amendment "was the final step in turning over complete responsibility for the Indochina war to President Nixon, contends George McGovern.

"His unchecked and unfettered role now as the chief executive makes him responsible alone now for developments in the future," the senator said in an interview. "If things come out well, he'll be a hero. If things come out as I think they will—which is very poorly—then he's in trouble."

McGovern, leader of the forces that lost 55-39 on the Hatfield-McGovern amendment requiring withdrawal of all U.S. troops from Vietnam by the end of 1971, was relaxed and unruffled as he sat in his office a few hours after the vote Tuesday and talked about its meaning.

"I think it is an abdication of our constitutional responsibilities to place the whole burden on the President," said the South Dakota Democrat.

"Today, all during this debate, the White House message was 'leave it to the President. He's getting us out, he's in charge, don't try to influence judgments or provide any guidelines at all—give him a free hand.' And the Senate voted to do that today."

The President, McGovern said, made a mistake in insisting on keeping the sole possession of the decision when to end the war.

"He has whatever ego satisfaction comes from demonstrating that he's running the show, that he's running the war," the senator said.

"But he has the great political hazard of making a decision

4-Her Wins National Poster Award

SUSAN BLUBAUGH

A Kingston teen received recognition for a poster design Monday at the Ohio State Fair.

Susan Marie Blubaugh was honored at the Ohio 4-H recognition breakfast earlier this week at the fairgrounds in Columbus.

Susan's poster design was selected one of the top ten for use in a national 4-H advertising program. Her design will appear on posters and billboards across the United States.

Utilizing the theme "4-H Gives," Susan designed a colorful entry which featured two young Junior Leaders. Around these youths are interlocking scenes of 4-H work.

SUSAN is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blubaugh, Route 1, Kingston. She is also a member of the Saltcreek Sew and Serve and the county Junior Leader organization.

A 1970 graduate of Logan Elm High School, Susan will continue her studies at the Columbus College of Art and Design this fall.

Link Saxbe, Stokes To Gaming Firm

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U. S. Sen. William B. Saxbe, Cleveland Mayor Carl B. Stokes and a Columbus firm that has figured in the statehouse loans scandal investigation all own stock in a Chicago firm, it was reported Tuesday.

The Willoughby News-Herald said Saxbe, Stokes and the LCM Corp. of Columbus all own shares in the Bally Manufacturing Corp. The firm makes slot machines and gaming devices.

Saxbe, reached in Washington, said he knew the firm made gaming devices when he bought the stock. "I bought 400 shares and they gave me 200 in some kind of split," Saxbe said. "It was recommended as a good investment."

State Fair In 2nd Half Of Schedule

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio State Fair moved into the second half of its 12-day stand today with continued sunny weather helping to push attendance to record levels.

The one millionth visitor to "Expohio '70" passed through the gates early Tuesday and by the day's end, total attendance figures stood at 1,145,704 for the first six days — 139,000 more than the six - day figure last year.

The millionth visitor was recognized as one of the seven members of the John Cochran family of Strongsville. The Cochrans and their five children were treated to stuffed animals and tickets for free rides, food and shows.

The Johnny Cash Show takes over the grandstand today through Friday. The Bob Hope show begins Saturday and runs through the end of the fair Monday.

Lynn Wallace of near Conover was crowned Ohio County and Independent Fair Queen over 70 county and one independent fair entries.

The 18-year-old brunette was Champaign County Junior Fair Queen and is majoring in fashion design at the University of Cincinnati.

The members of her court are Cindy Hester, Butler County; Sally Stinson, Ross County; Diane Disque, Franklin County, and Cindy Martin, Miami County.

Agnew Sen' To Brief LBJ On Asia

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, fresh from an optimistic report to President Nixon on his Asian tour, heads today for the Texas hill country to bring former President Lyndon B. Johnson up to date on events in Vietnam and Cambodia.

President Nixon told reporters Tuesday after hearing a 45-minute report from Agnew that he was sending the vice president to brief Johnson at the LBJ Ranch today before his return to Washington.

Agnew plans to spend most of the Labor Day weekend on the beach at Ocean City, Md., before hitting the political trail next week as chief campaigner for the Nixon administration as it seeks to overthrow 16 years of Democratic congressional control.

"The Cambodian situation seems to be developing very well," Agnew told newsmen on the lawn at the Western White House after his report to Nixon.

"A nation that had virtually no chance before the cleaning out of the sanctuaries now has at least a fighting chance for survival."

During a brief question-and-answer session, Agnew defended his statement that more than 50 per cent of the enemy forces in Cambodia have been eliminated.

A questioner noted that this figure was "at variance with some assessments" from White House officials, but Agnew said his figure was based on estimates of Cambodian officials, including "some fairly definitive information which would indicate the figure I gave you is accurate."

Circleville Band Prevue Set Friday

THE YOUNGSTERS — Circleville's Junior High Band will perform at the annual band prevue scheduled Friday on the CHS football field. Clifford Kerns is director of the young musicians.

FIRST GLIMPSE — Circleville football and band fans will get their first look at the 1970 edition of the Marching Band at the Prevue on Tiger Field Friday. The first part of the band on the field is the color guard.

HERE THEY ARE — The Circleville High School Marching Band is ready for the 1970 season. The band marches at halftime of the CHS football games, leads the parades at Pumpkin Show and is in the Jaycees annual Christmas Parade.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT — The Circleville Junior High School Marching Band practices for the annual band prevue and the coming season. The band is under the direction of Clifford Kerns.

McGovern Says Viet War Now Belongs To President

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate vote against the end-the-war amendment was the final step in turning over complete responsibility for the Indochina war to President Nixon, contends George McGovern.

"His unchecked and unfettered role now as the chief executive makes him responsible alone now for developments in the future," the senator said in an interview. "If things come out well, he'll be a hero. If things come out as I think they will—which is very poorly—then he's in trouble."

McGovern, leader of the forces that lost 55-39 on the Hatfield-McGovern amendment requiring withdrawal of all U.S. troops from Vietnam by the end of 1971, was relaxed and unruffled as he sat in his office a few hours after the vote Tuesday and talked about its meaning.

"I think it is an abdication of our constitutional responsibilities to place the whole burden on the President," said the South Dakota Democrat.

"Today, all during this debate, the White House message was 'leave it to the President. He's getting us out, he's in charge, don't try to influence judgments or provide any guidelines at all—give him a free hand.' And the Senate voted to do that today."

The President, McGovern said, made a mistake in insisting on keeping the sole possession of the decision when to end the war.

"He has whatever ego satisfaction comes from demonstrating that he's running the show, that he's running the war," the senator said.

"But he has the great political hazard of making a decision that at best is going to be controversial and unpopular. There's no way to back out of this war now and look graceful about it. You can't settle a war that we're going to settle short of victory without setting off a lot of cries of anguish in the country."

The amendment was born in McGovern's office in late April—just before the incursion in Cambodia. Four versions of it came to the Senate—all of them

Measles Immunization Scheduled

Rubella (3-day measles) immunizations are scheduled for the county elementary schools Oct. 19 and 20, not in November as stated in Tuesday's Herald.

The program, coordinated through county school officials, the Ohio Department of Health, and the county health board will be administered by Team I, Mr. Poe and Mrs. Pickens beginning 9 a.m. Oct. 19, in Pickaway Twp. School, Saltcreek (11 a.m.) and Washington schools (1 p.m.) will be visited on that date by Team I.

Team II, Mr. Yerian and Mrs. Davis will commence the program 9 a.m. Oct. 19 at Williamsport; Monroe, 11 a.m.; and Derby — 1 p.m.

On October 20, Team I will be at Walnut Twp. School, 9 a.m. and Ashville, 1 p.m.

Team II begins 9 a.m. Oct. 20 at Jackson School; and 1 p.m. at Scioto Twp.

bearing the imprint and zeal of the senator from South Dakota.

Is he now discouraged? "Temporarily," McGovern said. "I'll recover by tomorrow. I am baffled as to why so many senators who are willing to admit the whole war is a mistake are so reluctant to terminate it. That, I think, is a paradox that is discouraging."

Clerk Reports August Load

Sara Dresbach, clerk of the Common Pleas Court, issued a report of business of the court during August.

A total of 61 cases were filed during the month — 27 domestic relations cases, 14 civil suits and 20 criminal cases. With 32 cases disposed of, there remains 29 cases, including domestic, civil and criminal, to be carried into September.

Of those cases completed by the court, seven were dismissed by default, eight settled or dismissed without court action and 17 tried in court.

Only one new case was filed in the court of appeals during August making a total of nine pending on the Sept. docket.

Old Law Still Works

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — It has been the law in Rhode Island for 104 years that "no persons shall be excluded from any public school for reason of race or color."

DIRECTOR — Gary Dean, a Circleville High School graduate, is the new band director at his alma mater.

4-Her Wins National Poster Award

SUSAN BLUBAUGH

A Kingston teen received recognition for a poster design Monday at the Ohio State Fair.

Susan Marie Blubaugh was honored at the Ohio 4-H recognition breakfast earlier this week at the fairgrounds in Columbus.

Susan's poster design was selected one of the top ten for use in a national 4-H advertising program. Her design will appear on posters and billboards across the United States.

Utilizing the theme "4-H Gives," Susan designed a colorful entry which featured two young Junior Leaders. Around these youths are interlocking scenes of 4-H work.

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blubaugh, Route 1, Kingston. She is also a member of the Saltcreek Sew and Serve and the county Junior Leader organization.

A 1970 graduate of Logan Elm High School, Susan will continue her studies at the Columbus College of Art and Design this fall.

Jaycees Back New High-Rise

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 65 members of the North Columbus Jaycees announced Tuesday they will sponsor construction of a $3.7 million high-rise apartment for the elderly in the Market - Mohawk urban renewal area of Columbus.

The 11-story brick structure will have 224 one-bedroom living units and be financed 100 per cent by the Federal Housing Administration.

George J. Kontogiannis, a Columbus architect and a member of the Jaycee chapter, designed the structure.

President Alan McDermott of the Jaycee chapter said the project is a "really dramatic attempt to become involved in a meaningful project for our community."

Link Saxbe, Stokes To Gaming Firm

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U. S. Sen. William B. Saxbe, Cleveland Mayor Carl B. Stokes and a Columbus firm that has figured in the statehouse loans scandal investigation all own stock in a Chicago firm, it was reported Tuesday.

The Willoughby News-Herald said Saxbe, Stokes and the LCM Corp. of Columbus all own shares in the Bally Manufacturing Corp. The firm makes slot machines and gaming devices.

Saxbe, rached in Washington, said he knew the firm made gaming devices when he bought the stock. "I bought 400 shares and they gave me 200 in some kind of split," Saxbe said. "It was recommended as a good investment."

The News-Herald said Sam Klein, Bally treasurer, contributed $2,500 to Saxbe's 1968 senatorial campaign and $2,350 to Stokes for his 1969 campaign.

The paper said Stokes owned 200 shares of Bally stock in December of 1969. The Cleveland mayor was in Washington and could not be reached. A spokesman at his office said he knew nothing about the mayor's stock holdings.

The LCM Corp., which the Willoughby paper said owns 60 shares of Bally stock, was involved with Crofters, Inc., in arranging short-term loans for private corporations from the School Employees Retirement System. A grand jury now is investigating some of those loans.

Saxbe said he bought the stock through a Cleveland brokerage firm headed by John O. Doerge of Cleveland, identified by the News-Herald as a director of the Bally firm.

Records in the secretary of state's office show a $1,000 contribution to Saxbe's 1968 campaign from J. O. Doerge. Saxbe said he did not know Doerge or Klein.

Agnew Sen' To Brief LBJ On Asia

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, fresh from an optimistic report to President Nixon on his Asian tour, heads today for the Texas hill country to bring former President Lyndon B. Johnson up to date on events in Vietnam and Cambodia.

President Nixon told reporters Tuesday after hearing a 45-minute report from Agnew that he was sending the vice president to brief Johnson at the LBJ Ranch today before his return to Washington.

Agnew plans to spend most of the Labor Day weekend on the beach at Ocean City, Md., before hitting the political trail next week as chief campaigner for the Nixon administration as it seeks to overthrow 16 years of Democratic congressional control.

"The Cambodian situation seems to be developing very well," Agnew told newsmen on the lawn at the Western White House after his report to Nixon. "A nation that had virtually no chance before the cleaning out of the sanctuaries now has at least a fighting chance for survival."

During a brief question-and-answer session, Agnew defended his statement that more than 50 per cent of the enemy forces in Cambodia have been eliminated.

A questioner noted that this figure was "at variance with some assessments" from White House officials, but Agnew said his figure was based on estimates of Cambodian officials, including "some fairly definitive information which would indicate the figure I gave you is accurate."
